

Heaven Couldn't Wait for An Angel like you

How sweet and good it is to know that Heaven has an angel like you.
We could have never prepared ourselves for this moment,
this moment of heartbroken emptiness we feel without you.
But Heaven couldn't wait for an angel like you.

We all loved everything about you. Your kindness, your sweet voice and face, your smartness, your caring love and humble spirit. Your free will you had for life.
Most of all, we admired your courage and strength to conquer all.
You are our INSPIRATION.
It's good to know Heaven has an angel like you.

God has really blessed us to have such a wonderful person in our life like you.
I know God created you because you are a true gem that shines. You have accomplished so much.
You are successful in so many ways. You have seen numerous beautiful places.
You, Angieleta Marie, gave us a BROADER VISION for life.
But Heaven couldn't wait for an angel like you.

Because you are a true gem that shines. God created a beautiful gem of a miracle and blessing, put it all into one and that is you, Angieleta Marie "Letoe"
But Heaven couldn't wait for an angel like you.

Life Reflections

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course." II Timothy 4:6 - 7

ANGIELETA PACK, affectionately known as “Letoe,” was born on February 18, 1972, to Clinton Pack, Sr. and the late Gloria Maria Jackson Pack. From the very beginning, she was known for her warm smile, caring spirit, and loving heart. She was a devoted daughter, a dedicated mother, a proud grandmother, a faithful servant of God, and a loyal friend whose life reflected kindness, compassion, and unwavering faith. On God’s appointed day, He called His precious child home, leaving behind a legacy of love, service, and cherished memories that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Angieleta received her education in the public schools of Sumter County, where she excelled academically and formed lifelong friendships. She graduated from Sumter High School with the Class of 1990. Believing that education opened the door to greater opportunities, she continued her academic journey and earned a Bachelor’s degree in Business Management from Morris College. Her determination and perseverance demonstrated her belief that success comes through hard work, dedication, and faith.

At an early age, Angieleta accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and developed a personal relationship with Him that guided her throughout her life. She became a faithful and devoted member of St. Peter Baptist Church, where she worshiped with joy and served wholeheartedly until her untimely passing. Angieleta believed that serving others was one of the greatest expressions of her faith. She faithfully labored in numerous ministries, including the Leadership Ministry, Usher Ministry, Sister 2 Sister Ministry, Pastor Support Ministry, and Hospitality Ministry. Whether greeting visitors with a warm smile, supporting her pastor, encouraging fellow members, or extending hospitality to guests, she served with humility, grace, and genuine love. Her commitment to the work of the church reflected her desire to glorify God through both word and deed.

Those who knew Angieleta knew she possessed a beautiful spirit that could brighten any room she entered. Affectionately known as “Letoe,” she had a gentle heart, a generous nature, and a listening ear for anyone in need. She was the type of person who never hesitated to offer words of encouragement, lend a helping hand, or provide comfort during difficult times. Her love was unconditional, and her presence brought joy and peace to family, friends, neighbors, and all whose paths she crossed.

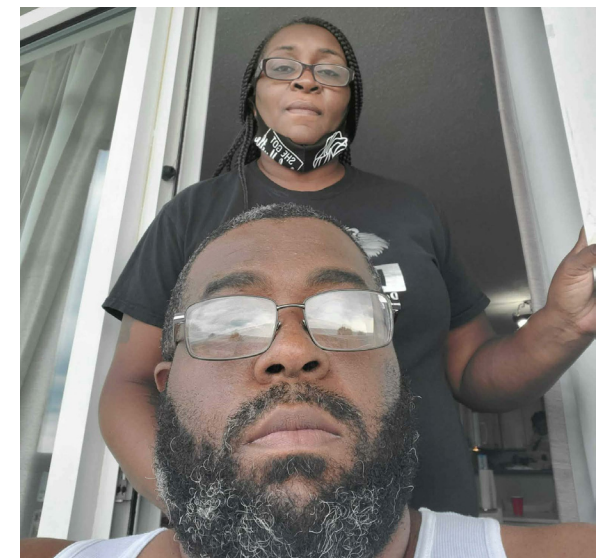

Above all, Angieleta treasured her family. Being a mother was one of her greatest blessings, and she took tremendous pride in nurturing, encouraging, and supporting her children. Her grandchildren brought immeasurable joy to her life, and she cherished every opportunity to spend time with them, creating memories that will forever remain in their hearts. She valued the importance of family, celebrating every milestone, offering wise counsel, and standing as a source of strength through life’s challenges.

Angieleta leaves to cherish her precious memories her three beloved sons, Raymond Pack, Raekwon (Jessica) Pack of Washington, and Daekwon (Alexis) Pack; her special friend, Tony Benjamin; three loving sisters, Maxine Robinson, Renee Muldrow, and Cynthia Pack; four devoted brothers, Robert Jackson, Maymon Pack, Clayton (Nakeeshia) Pack, and Clinton (Kenchia) Pack; six cherished grandchildren, Jasiah Pack, Elyzabeth Pack, Ja’Kadone Pack, Kailani Pack, Luca Pack, and Journee Pack; along with a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, church family, and dear friends who were blessed to know her and will forever treasure the memories they shared.

Angieleta was preceded in death by her beloved mother, Gloria Maria Jackson Pack; her brother, Reginald Jackson; her sister-in-law, Tonya Harvin Pack; and her paternal grandparents, Tossie and Cora Lee Washington. While their earthly reunions have ended, we find comfort in knowing that they have now been reunited in the presence of the Lord.

Although our hearts are saddened by her passing, we rejoice in knowing that Angieleta’s faith has become sight. Her life was a shining example of love, perseverance, compassion, and faithful service. The seeds of kindness she planted throughout her life will continue to bear fruit in the lives of those she touched. Her beautiful smile, gentle spirit, words of encouragement, and unwavering love will never be forgotten.

Today, we celebrate a life well lived—a woman who loved God, cherished her family, served her church faithfully, and impacted countless lives through simple acts of kindness and generosity. Though she is no longer with us in body, her legacy will continue to inspire all who were privileged to know her. Her memory will forever remain a blessing, and her love will continue to live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind.

A Mother's Love Shall Never End

When tomorrow comes and I'm not there, don't be afraid
There will be an empty spot where my body use to lay
Even though my life is over, a mother's love never ends
For a new life for me has only start to begin

For my life is no longer mine, nothing could be changed
I'm now a lily in the valley, but in your hearts is where I'll remain
Yet this body was just a loner, and it had to be given back
For my life is no longer mine, I wasn't given that chance

Though my journey has just begun, and you may feel your world has ended
My body no longer has life, it feels no pain again
Yet hearts are broken and I will be sadly missed
Even if I had stayed, would you rather see me suffer like this

Your lives will go on, yet mine would have perished
Knowing that I'll be forever gone once my body is buried
My love shall never end even if I'm not there
Never ask the question why, nothing in life is fair

You weren't prepared for today, just wait until tomorrow
The pain will hit differently because I can no longer call you
But after a while the pain will ease
It only hurts more now because you lost me

Be prepared to live without me only in physical state
This will be our last meet, this sleep can't be awakened
A mother's love shall never end, nor shall it die
Everyone has a death date, mine just came on time
