

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

Geneva Davis, beloved mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend, was born on March 15th, 1957, in Brooklyn, New York, to the Late Brunetta Henderson and Robert Henderson. Geneva was a woman of great strength, intelligence, and compassion. She was known for her warm spirit, her unwavering positivity, and her ability to comfort and encourage everyone around her. Geneva was a devoted Christian woman who loved the Lord deeply. Her faith was the foundation of her life and guided her actions, her words, and the way she cared for others. A lifelong learner and dedicated professional who obtained two degrees and retired for Vocational Rehabilitation.

Above all, Geneva was deeply loving and a devoted family woman. She was the foundation for her family. She treasured every moment spent with her loved ones. Geneva departed this life peacefully leaving behind a legacy of love, strength, achievement, faith, and unwavering devotion to her family and community.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Jeremy Xavier Henderson, Jeremy Xavier Davis, Xamari Taylor; her one grandson; five great grandsons; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and her friends.

Though she is no longer here with us in physical form, her love, wisdom, faith, accomplishments, and the light she shared with others will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Forever loved. Forever remembered. Forever missed.

LIFE IS BUT A STOPPING PLACE

Life is but a stopping place,

A pause in what’s to be,

A resting place along the road,

to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,

Different paths along the way,

We all were meant to learn some things,

but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,

Far greater than we know.

For some the journey’s quicker,

For some the journey’s slow.

And when the journey finally ends,

We’ll claim a great reward,

And find an everlasting peace,

Together with the Lord.
