

MY FATHER'S HOME

No matter where I travel,
No matter where I roam,
I'm in my Father's kingdom,
So everywhere is "home."
My ceiling's made of fluffy clouds
Afloat in skies of blue,
My carpet's woven out of grass
And flowers fresh with dew.
My walls are made of mountains
And woods of stately trees,
My home is warmed by sunshine,
And in summer, cooled by breeze.
For joy and entertainment,
I have a constant show-Songbirds singing,
sunbeams dancing,
Dawn and dusk aglow.
And when my earthly days
are done,
And I no longer roam,
I'll still be in His kingdom-
I'll be in my Father's home!

His Legacy...

Mr. Jeremy Neil Washington was born on May 17, 1990, in Jacksonville, FL to James E. Washington Sr. and Lennie Freeman Washington. He attended Jacksonville Beach Area Schools and graduated from Fletcher SQ. High School and grew up around Atlantic Beach Florida. He served as a member of New Community Baptist Church under Bishop Michael Johnson.

He was well known in his community for his beautiful smile, even when he met a stranger; his witty sense of humor, and his caring and giving personality. Jeremy was a true believer in Christ Jesus and his love for others.

Jeremy is survived by his parents: James E. Washington Sr. and Lennie Freeman Washington of Jacksonville, FL; children; Malachi Carter Washington and Kate Marie Taylor Washington of Arkansas; brother: James E. Washington Jr.; sister: Jamaica A. Washington Anthony (Mark); nephew: Mark Anthony III; brotherly cousin: Markus Terrell; four aunts; three uncles; two great aunts; and a host of relatives and friends.
