Isreal Livingston Jr. "Lightbread"

July 15, 1947 - February 19, 2026

Isreal Livingston, Jr., affectionately known as "Lightbread," was born on July 15, 1947, in Madison, Florida, to Isreal Livingston Sr. and Janie Mae Livingston. He grew up in Greenville, Florida, and remained a resident of that community.

Family meant everything to Lightbread. He married his sweetheart, Rutha Mae Demps on November 21, 1972, and remained a devoted husband until her passing in 2015. He also loved his children and grandchildren. He guided them with encouragement, wisdom, and support. He was proud of the adults they became and the accomplishments they merited.

Lightbread was one who never knew strangers, for he regarded them as friends he had not yet met. Wherever he went, there was a great likelihood of his knowing someone there, but if he did not, he would have made a connection with someone by the time he left. Lightbread knew everyone's name...and their business. He was a great storyteller who held the attention of his listeners by sharing his stories for hours. On the other hand, he never hesitated to speak his mind, whether you wanted to hear it or not.

Lightbread's life was defined by his strong work ethic - laboring from sunrise to sunset on his father's farm, to exhausting hours in the pulpwood/logging industry, and finally, to the tiring days at Florida Plywood, Inc. where he retired in 2026, with 25 years of dedicated service.

Isreal Livingston, Jr. finished his earthly journey on February 19, 2026, with his namesake at his bedside. He transitioned from pain and agony to receive his eternal reward.

Isreal "Lightbread" Livingston, Jr. was deeply loved and will be greatly missed. His memory will be cherished and will shine brightly in his loved ones' hearts. Celebrating his life and legacy are his children: Lavonnia (Joseph) Hatcher of Orlando, Florida, Isreal Livingston III of Greenville Florida, and LaEbony Livingston of Silver Spring, Maryland; his grandchildren: Quaniesha Bellamy, Nakia Payne, Darius Payne, and Skyler Hatcher; and his great-grandchildren: Rennix Livingston and Kyi'Avian Ghent; his devoted sister, Nadine (Robert) Williams; his brothers, Jimmy (Beulah) Livingston and Henry (Carolyn) Livingston; his sisters-in-love: Cora Demps, Glynaveous (John) Powell, and Ruby (William) Noble; along with a host of sorrowing special nieces and nephews, consoling friends, and beloved community.

Isreal Livingston, Jr. was preceded in death by his parents, Isreal Livingston Sr. and Janie Mae Livingston; daughter, Shebretia Livingston; siblings, LeeVan Livingston, Charles (Luella) Livingston, and Robert Davis.

Tribute from the Grandchildren

Our grandfather was truly one of a kind. He was smooth, sharp-tongued, and never missed an opportunity to talk a little trash — always in a way that left you laughing. Being his grandchild guaranteed two things: a good laugh and a crazy nickname you didn't ask for but somehow wore with pride.

He had a way of making every moment more fun and every gathering better simply by being present. Our grandfather didn't just live life — he enjoyed it. And he made sure everyone around him enjoyed it too. His laughter, his jokes, and his playful spirit filled every room and brought people together.

Behind the humor was a grandfather who loved his family deeply. He taught us how to enjoy the moment, how to keep things light even when life felt heavy, and how laughter can be its own kind of love. Those lessons live in us now.

We will miss his voice, his humor, and the way he made each of us feel special in our own way.

Rest peacefully, Granddaddy. We know you're still somewhere smooth-talking, laughing, and saying exactly what's on your mind.

Tribute from the Nieces and Nephews

In loving memory of our wonderful Uncle.

*Of all the special gifts in life,
whether great or small,
to have you as our uncle
was the greatest gift of all.*

*May the winds of love blow softly
and whisper in your ear,
“We love and miss you, Uncle,
and wish that you were here.”*

*Deep within our hearts, your life is kept —
to love, to cherish, never to forget.
There are no more tomorrows we can share,
but all our yesterdays are always there.*

*A silent thought, a quiet tear keeps your memory ever near.
Forever in our hearts,
you will remain.*
