“Twelve Roses for Sister Nandi”

September 29, 1973 Nandi Sala Jackson was born in Brownsville, Brooklyn, New York, USA. On Saturday May 02, 2026 she completed the will of the father, surrounded by one of her five sons and her husband.

Nandi received her primary and secondary education in New York. She relocated to Columbia South Carolina after graduating High School, She continued her education at the University of South Carolina, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. She started her career in customer service and insurance and was a dedicated employee. After she graduated college, her husband James Howard Shuler Jr, proposed to her. They were married in February of 1997 and raised seven children, five sons and two daughters.

Nandi was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, daughter and choir member. She pursued her passion as a seamstress, gifted in the art of sewing. Known for her beautifully made hats, she also created outfits for her children and delighted in dressing them up as her own little models. She wrote countless songs, and ballads, that blessed her church congregation; poems and sonnets that encouraged and brought hope.

She loved the Lord and had a strong prayer life being deeply committed to her church group, “The Praying Women”. Nandi trusted God with unwavering faith, and she shared that faith with everyone she encountered. Even in sickness, she remained a radiant symbol of still having joy in the midst of tribulation.

Nandi leaves to cherish her loving memory, her husband James Howard Shuler Jr. of twenty nine years, her five sons; Jamani Shuler, Jordan Shuler, Jattir Shuler, James Shuler III, and Jacarl Shuler; her two daughters Nakia Shuler and Naira Shuler; her granddaughter Noa Zuri Shuler; her loving mother, Elsie Samuels; her loving brother; Melvin Samuels Jr; her various in-laws and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

The first rose is the day you were born, yet chosen
The second rose is for though you were young, god called you to be shaped and molden

The third rose is for when your mother said "Nandi, now were going to live holy. You didn't fight it, but chose God as your one and only.

The fourth rose is for how you followed your father who was a pattern
In praying and fasting because those things really matter

The fifth rose is for when you began sewing clothing for your baby dolls, A gift that would later bless the saints with hats, wedding bags, dresses and all.

The sixth rose is for holding a standard through elementary and secondary school.
Though you were taunted, your faith did not move.

The seventh rose is for giving up the life you were living in New York City to move down south.
Not knowing in the space of time, the Lord was going to reward you with a faithful spouse

The eighth rose is for motherhood that was in God's holy plan,
He has blessed you with seven in your tall and lanky clan.

The ninth rose is for how you have inspired the church with your songs of praise, The Lord has used you to encourage us and the faith of many has been raised.

The tenth rose is for now you have strengthened your arms in prayer, knowing when you bow your knees, the Lord will surely meet you there.

The eleventh rose is for daughter, thou have done virtuously and has excellest them all, you wrote a song to inspire us to know that we don t have to tall.

The twelfth rose is for today we celebrate you and the fruits of your hands, through your love for God, you have shown us
