

When I Am Gone

When I come to the end of my journey,
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget, if you can, that I ever frowned –
And remember only my smile.

Forget unkind words I may have spoken;
Remember some good that I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache,
And remember I've had so much fun.

Forget that I stumbled and blundered,
And sometimes fell by the way;
Remember that I have fought some hard battles,
And won by the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my passing –
I would not have you sad for one day;
But in summer, please gather some flowers,
And remember the place where I lay;

And come in the shade of evening,
When the sun paints the sky in the west;
Stand for a moment beside me,
And remember me at my best.

IF TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*If tomorrow starts without me,
Please understand
That an angel came
And took me by the hand.
She said my place was ready,
In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right there in your heart*
