Far Off Place

The "God" that we have grown to love,
Has been watching us from up above.
He heals our pain from a Far Off Place,
And when we part, that's where He'll wait.

He has taught us not to hate,
He is the one to conceal our fate.
For He's the one who brought us here,
So save your sorrows for yesteryear.

We may talk to Him all year round,
Though from Him we hear no sound.
He listens when we need an ear,
Or even when we shed a tear.

We are His children, here on Earth,
He has watched over us since our birth.
He's there for us every day,
And helps us in His own special way.

When it's our time to say goodbye,
The people we love will let out a sigh.
They know we'll go to a better place,
To walk with "God" in that Far Off Place.

"Love you, Bye"
