

Gone Fishin'

If someone should ask for me,
Tell 'em Heaven is where I'll be.
I've finished all my life's chores,
And now I fish on Heaven's shores.

The view is grand and the fishing's great,
But I yearn for you as I wait.
I'll save a spot on the river's bend,
For all those I call family and friend.

But for now, sail out to sea
And make a cast in memory,
To all the good times that you had,
With me- your Husband, your Brother, your Dad.

And if the fish no longer bite
Or seem no longer worth the fight,
Because it's me that you are missin'
Don't worry- be glad- I've only gone fishin'.

*I have fought a good fight, I have finished my

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
