“Keila was a loving soul, who will forever be missed”

Takeila Muller, affectionately known as "Keila," was a beacon of light in the lives of those who had the privilege to know her. Born on December 27, 1981, in Bartow, Florida, she spent her vibrant years nurturing both her entrepreneurial spirit and her deep connections with family and friends, leaving an indelible mark on everyone she encountered.

Keila’s journey concluded on January 3, 2025, in Winter Haven, Florida, where she is remembered not just for her accomplishments but for her unique personality—a harmonious blend of kindness and mirth. With an infectious sense of humor, she had an unparalleled gift for making others laugh. Whether it was through her passion for shopping, delighting in culinary escapades, serenading those around her with song, or dancing gracefully through life, Keila embraced joy and extended it to everyone in her presence. Her love for travel enriched her experiences and friendships, allowing her to weave lasting bonds across various locales.

As a dedicated entrepreneur, Takeila navigated her professional endeavors with the same fervor she brought to her leisure pursuits. Her contributions to the business world showcased her tenacity, creativity, and indomitable spirit, serving as an inspiration to many aspiring entrepreneurs.

Takeila is preceded in death by her brother Temario James.

Keila is survived by her cherished family, who will carry her legacy of love and laughter forward. Her beloved husband, Zico Muller, stands beside her children, De'vante Scott, Shakeir Jones, Tyquaveon Robinson, Tyasia Coleman, Jacoriean Spencer, and Treveon Coleman, each of whom holds treasured memories of her nurturing spirit. Additionally, Keila took immense pride in her grandchildren, Aurlani Scott, Ja'Kai Gamble, and Kaison Ponder, who were her delight and joy.

She leaves behind a supportive family, including her father, Roland Scott (Pam), and her mother, Regina Coleman, as well as siblings Roshaundra Coleman, David James, and Jeremy James. Keila also held a special place in her heart for her sisters, Prisandra Taylor, Shacava Sippio and LaRosa Sippio. Her extended family also encompassed her special daughter-in-law, Iyanna Marria.

Takeila “Keila” Muller, with her abundant spirit and warmth, will be profoundly missed but never forgotten. Her memory will live in the hearts of her family and friends, a radiant reminder of a life well-lived.
