

OBITUARY

Deborah “Debbie” Ann Bonotto, affectionately known as Debbie, 55, passed away on June 21, 2025, in Cleburne, Texas. Born July 19, 1969, in Orlando, Florida. Debbie brought joy and light to the lives of many through her vivacious spirit and warm personality.

Debbie had a passion for life that was evident in everything she did, including her love for cooking at her family's barbecue restaurant. Her culinary skills and delightful meals were a source of comfort for numerous family members and friends. Additionally, Debbie enjoyed the great outdoors, finding pleasure in fishing, camping, and tubing, activities that allowed her to connect with nature and appreciate the beauty of life around her. She will be remembered not only for her talents but also for her friendliness and outgoing nature, which allowed her to forge strong connections with those she met throughout her life.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Thomas James Bonotto and Shellie, and brother Randall Wayne Noble.

Debbie is survived by her children, Richard Anthony Valdez, Thomas James Turner, Colton Wayne Hill, grandchildren Alayna Hill and Jazmin Adeline Valdez; life-long companion Richard Cope; sisters, Karen Noble and her boyfriend Kent Kirkpatrick, and Denise Bonotto; brothers, Jimmy Noble and husband Lewis, and Richard Bonotto and wife Christine; uncle Robert Bonotto and his wife Diane, along with a multitude of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

As we remember Debbie, we will celebrate the joy she brought into our lives, her passion for cooking, her love for adventure, and the warmth she shared with everyone around her. She will be profoundly missed but will remain forever in our hearts.

Deborah Ann Bonotto

Revelation 21:4

He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.
