

To My Dearest Family

Some things I'd like to say, but first of all to let you know that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from Heaven where I dwell with God above where there's no more tears or sadness, There is just eternal love.

Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you.

It's good to have you back again you were missed while you were gone as for your dearest family they'll be here later on I need you here so badly as part of My big plan there's so much that we have to do to help our mortal man." Then God gave me a list of things He wished for me to do and foremost on that list of mine is to watch and care for you And I will be beside you every day and week and year and when you're sad I'm standing there to wipe away the tear And when you lie in bed at night, the days chores put to flight God and I are closest to you in the middle of the night

When you think of my life on Earth and all those loving years because you're only human they are bound to bring you tears But do not be afraid to cry it does relieve the pain remember there would be no flowers unless there was some rain I wish that I could tell you of all that God has planned but if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand

But one thing is for certain, though my life on Earth is o're
I am closer to you now than I ever was before

And to my very many friends, trust God knows what is best I'm still not far away from you, I'm just beyond the crest

There are rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb but together we can do it, taking one day at a time

It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too that as you give unto the world, so the world will give to you

If you can help somebody who is in sorrow or in pain then you can say to God at night, my day was not in vain

And now I am contented that my life it was worthwhile knowing as I passed along the way I made somebody smile

So if you meet somebody who is down and feeling low just lend a hand to pick him up as on your way you go

When you are walking down the street and you've got me on your mind

I'm walking in your footsteps, only half a step behind

And when you feel the gentle breeze or the wind upon your face that's me giving you a great big hug or just a soft embrace

And when it's time for you to go from that body to be free remember you're not going you are coming here to me

And I will always love you from that land way up above Will be in touch again soon

Her Story
Betty Joyce Moore

Betty Joyce Moore, affectionally known as “Betty Mo”, graced the world with her presence on February 14, 1951. She was the eldest child of Myrtle Mae Smith.

Betty was educated in Gadsden County School System and attended Carter-Parramore High School. She was known for her culinary gifts and faithfully served as a Dietician Cook for over 36 years. A loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and a cherished member of her community, Betty touched many lives. Those both near and far were blessed by her hands and she prepared delicious meals and desserts.

Betty married the love of her life, Mr. Willie Moore, with whom she shared 24 devoted years before he preceded her in death.

Betty confessed Jesus at an early age and was baptized at St. Mark Primitive Baptist Church in Shiloh, Florida. She lived a life rooted in love, strength, and devotion to her family. Known for her warm spirit, kind heart, and unwavering support, Betty was a constant source of love and encouragement to all who knew her.

On March 12, 2026, God called Betty’s name, and she peacefully answered. She leaves to cherish her memory, her five children: Michael Outley, Sylvia (Warren) Brown, Joyce Moore, William (Ellise) Moore, Jr., and LaNandra (Charles) Moore-Stafford; twelve grandchildren: Michael, Tavarsay, Jasquita, Adrianna, Kierra, Michael Shae, Ah’rianna, Veronicka, Myisha, Marlon, William and Elizabeth, and a host of great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her beloved sister: Mary Poole; along with extended family and friends who will deeply miss her presence.

Betty’s legacy will continue to live on through the many lives she touched with her compassion, wisdom, and grace.
