Mary B Grant Bolden, affectionately known to many as "Suebay" was born on December 25, 1945, in Ozark, Alabama. Suebay departed from this life on June 11, 2026, peacefully at the Ozark Health and Rehabilitation Center.

Suebay was the beloved daughter of the late Joseph Charles Grant and Maggie Lou Mixon Grant. She was one of a large and loving family, predeceased by her son, Hernandez Bolden, and siblings: Dollie Mae Snow, Dorothy McLin, Tutna Mixon, Walter Lee Mixon, Fannie Lee Lawson, Robert Lee Moore, James Grant, Merita Crittenden, OC Grant and James L Davis.

Suebay's life was a testament to dedication and service. She graduated from DA Smith High School and pursued further education in Mobile, Alabama. She began her career as a barber on the Old Block, before dedicating many years to Ma Bell telephone company and eventually retiring from Verizon. Her work ethic and commitment left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of working alongside her.

A woman of faith, Suebay confessed in Christ at a young age and was a dedicated member of the First Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. SC Jackson. Her commitment to her faith was evident as she taught Sunday school, nurturing the spiritual growth of many until her health would no longer allow. Her devotion to her community and church was unwavering and served as an inspiration to all.

Suebay was known for her passion for fishing, a pastime she enjoyed wherever time would allow. Her love for the simple joys in life, like casting a line and feeling the tug of a fish, brought her peace and happiness.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and memories, cherished by her dear sister Joann Dorsey (Charles); nieces: Carol Johnson, Theresa Hart, Andra Stokes, Cloris Grant, Landa Grant, Keondra Moore, Rochette Jones, Roxanne Hill, Chelsey Dorsey, Angela Lawson, Stephanie Jackson, Carolyn Jackson, Lillie Jackson, Susie Lawson, and Lisa Thornton; nephews: Ricky Jeffrey, Aiko Davis, James Grant, Joseph Grant, JC Lawson; and her devoted friends, Danny McCloud and Joe Shipman. Each of these individuals will carry forward the lessons of kindness, resilience, and faith that Suebay imparted.

Suebay will be deeply missed but forever remembered by all who were fortunate to know her.

Recessional

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Psalm 23.1

LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me

I want no rites in a gloom filled room

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long

And not with your head bowed low

Remember the love that once we shared

Miss me, but let me go.

For this a journey we all must take

And each must go alone

It's all part of the master plan

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart

Go to the friends we know

Laugh at all the things we used to do

Miss me, but let me go.
