Celebrating THE LIFE OF Barbara J WRIGHT

Barbara Jeanne Wright was born on September 10, 1944, in East Orange, NJ to Addie and Arthur Nash. She was the youngest of two daughters. She graduated from East Orange High School and went on to mother two children of her own. Barbara dedicated her life to being a devoted wife, mother, and step-mother and to helping those in need. After a brief move to Chicago, she returned to New Jersey where she lived and worked at East Orange General's Family Health Care Center for more than 20 years until she retired.

Barbara was a doting mother of two, Grandmother of 14, and Great Grandmother of 16. She cultivated a special bond with each and every one of us and the memories we shared with her will live on forever.

Barbara was a powerhouse of positivity and light, Barbara will be remembered for her infectious smile, vibrant personality, and her ability to light up any room she entered. She danced at every party, laughed at everyone's jokes, and appreciated even the smallest gesture of love, that she got in return for the love she gave. Anyone who was fortunate enough to cross her path was blessed with a feeling of being welcomed and accepted.

Barbara was love. She was patient and kind. She was not envious or boastful. She was not easily angered and she kept no record of wrongs. She rejoiced in God's truth and she was hopeful for the future of her legacy. Barbara was love and we know that love never fails.

She is preceded in death by her mother, father, and sisters. She is survived by her two sons, Ronald Finley and Kenneth Bogar. Daughters in law Shannon Finley and Tashel Bogar. Grandchildren Krystal, Veronica, Rhonda, Erica, Shelby, Heather, Ronald Jr., Miranda, Christian, Maurice, Eric, Kenneth Jr., Mason, and Trinity as well as 16 Great Grandchildren.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
