

A Beautiful Day in Heaven

Death is but a passing from darkness into light.
I awakened from my sleep and beheld a glorious sight.
It's a beautiful day in heaven.
Love is everywhere.
Peace and comfort surround me
No place on earth can compare.
I can never begin to describe the wondrous things I see.
If you could glimpse at heaven,
you'd shed no tears for me.
Keep my memory in your heart.
Time will pass and then
one beautiful day in heaven, we'll be together again.

Obituary

Mr. Larry Wendell Jordan, of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, at age 75, entered eternal rest and gained his wings on November 24, 2025. He was born on February 03, 1950 to Waddell Jordan and Mozelle Satterwhite Jordan in Gibsonville, North Carolina.

Larry was a loving, gentle and respected man who loved fishing, football and family. Larry graduated from Sedalia High School in McLeansville, North Carolina. After high school he joined the United States Army. He was highly skilled and worked various jobs, but his true passion was truck driving.

Larry is preceded in death by his father and mother, Waddell Jordan and Mozelle Satterwhite Jordan, wife, Diane Jordan, sister, Christine Jordan and brothers, Douglas Jordan, Clyde Jordan, Paul Jordan and Jasper Jordan.

He is survived by his children, a son Larry (Chundra) Sansbury and a daughter, VicKoshia Sansbury; four stepchildren, Jackie Booker, Jennette Booker, James Booker, and Deborah Booker; and a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also leaves behind his siblings, Majorie Lee of Pittsboro, North Carolina, Carolyn (James) LeGrant, Edith Jordan Moore, Wanda Blackwell, Shirley Jordan-Joyner, Haywood (Kathy) Jordan, Hazel Lowrance, and Janice Jordan of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; and many loving nieces, nephews, and extended family who will miss him dearly.

He had fond memories of being on the road.
