

Virginia “Ginny” Britt

NOVEMBER 23, 1936 - JANUARY 21, 2026

Virginia “Ginny” Britt, 89, of Newport, North Carolina, passed away peacefully at her home on Wednesday, January 21, 2026.

Ginny was born on November 23, 1936, in Chocowinity, NC, to the late Blake Nobles and Mable Dixon Brickhouse. She loved the Lord with all her heart and found great joy and comfort in going to church.

Ginny took immense pride in her home and was famously meticulous, cleaning wasn’t just a chore, it was a passion. Her house was always immaculate and welcoming. She also had a simple favorite treat, a Frosty from Wendy’s. Her daughter’s best friend Debbie made sure Ginny never went without one, a small kindness that meant the world to her.

In her younger years, Ginny loved going to horse shows and spending quiet time on trail rides. Ginny was also a devoted NASCAR fan and never missed a chance to cheer on her favorites.

More than anything, Ginny treasured time spent with the people she loved. She adored game nights with friends, cherished family gatherings, and was always her children’s and grandchildren’s loudest and proudest cheerleader at their sporting events. Her love, encouragement, and steady presence will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Those remaining to cherish her memory are her devoted husband of 48 years, Otho Clayton “OC” Britt Jr.; daughter, Cindy Ipock (Sterling) of Newport, NC; sons, Phil Asby (Aliceson) of McCormick, SC and Sanford Ipock Jr. (Nicolle) of Collierville, TN; grandchildren, Jason Asby, Jessica Asby, Amanda Gray, Jennifer Gray, Brittany Beaman, Kayla Asby, Abby Ipock and Cole Ipock; great-grandchildren, Carter Hamilton, Aaliyah Jackson, McKenna Hamilton, Jace Beaman, Stella Beaman, and Julie Beaman; and her best furry companion, Missy.

In addition to her parents, Ginny was preceded in death by her daughters, Melissa Ipock, Laraine Asby; and stepdaughter, Kerry Miller.

Going Home to Glory

“She’s going home to glory,”
Your angel came to say.
He stopped by only briefly
As he made his winged way.

“She’s going home to glory.”
He whispered that to me.
And as my tears began to fall,
God gave me eyes to see.

I saw your heavenly welcome
As the angels gathered round.
I heard the heavenly chorus
And celestial trumpet sound.

I watched the holy Savior
As He welcomed you in love
To join the saints now gathered
In His heavenly realm above.

I saw your smile, most radiant,
As you walked into His light,
Clothed in His robe of righteousness
Of incandescent white.

You joined your friends and loved ones
As you bowed before God’s throne
And heard the Father welcome you,
His child who had come home.

And though my heart is aching now,
Warm tears roll down my cheek.
I also feel a grateful peace,
The kind that all men seek.

You have travelled home to glory,
To the place of heavenly rest,
And left to follow after you
All those you loved and blessed.
