

A HAIRDRESSER'S PRAYER

*Lord continue to anoint my hands with care and bless me daily
As I cut hair.*

Continue to remind me that in your image.

I was made, and work is more than doing a cut, color or fade.

*It is still a place, where I can glorify you
In everything that do.*

Lord help me not to be just a hairdresser.

But an example of you and let your love and patience shine through me, too.

*And when the scissors
have finally been put away,
Let me have made a difference
In someone's day.*

Magdalene "Maggie" Schlosser, 77, passed away peacefully on June 5, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family.

Maggie was born December 26, 1948, in Selfridge, North Dakota, to Phillip and Barbara (Berger) Leingang. She graduated from Mandan High School and later attended cosmetology school, beginning a career that would span more than 50 years. She devoted her life to helping others look and feel their best and was well-known throughout the community for her kindness, warm personality, and dedication to her clients. For 34 years, Maggie proudly co-owned Hair Professionals alongside her dear friend, Marion Stolz. The salon was more than a business, it was a place where lifelong friendships were formed and countless memories were shared.

On September 12, 1975, Maggie married the love of her life, Thomas "Tom" Schlosser. Together they built a life centered on faith, family, and friendship. Family was the heart of Maggie's world. Nothing brought her greater joy than gathering loved ones around the table, preparing meals, and making sure everyone was well-fed and cared for. She had a gift for making people feel welcome and loved. Whether it was a holiday meal, a family gathering, or simply sharing a glass of Diet Coke and a conversation, Maggie's home was a place of warmth and hospitality. She especially treasured time spent with her grandchildren, whom she loved to spoil every chance she got.

Maggie enjoyed many hobbies throughout her life, including bingo, bingo, and bingo; trips to the casino, traveling, gardening, cooking, and spending time with family and friends. Her laughter, generosity, and caring spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Maggie is survived by her daughters, Stephanie (Randall) Stoeberl and their son, Hunter; Tiffany Schlosser; and Britnie (Joel) Thieschafer and their children, Parker, Leo, and Kaylee. She is also survived by her brother, Robert (Paula) Leingang; sister-in-law, Florence Leingang; and in-laws, Ron (Virginia) Schlosser; Marlene (Donald) Geiger, Les (Margaret) Schlosser, Carol Kuntz, Bob (Diane) Schlosser, Lee (Gloria) Schlosser, Geraldine (Gary) Jorde, Perry (Bonnie) Schlosser, Shirley Voigt, Mary Lou (Clinton) Pulkrabek, Bill (Gayle) Schlosser, Jackie (Calvin) Schmidt, and Rick (Doris) Schlosser; and countless nieces and nephews.

Maggie was preceded in death by her husband, Tom Schlosser, in 2014; her parents; brothers, Florian, Lucas, and Leonard Leingang; sister, Theresa (Bob) Thomas; in-laws, Dorothy "Dot" (John) Frohlich and Dennis Schlosser; and her special friends, Marion Stolz and Ken Kottsick.

Maggie's legacy of love, generosity, hard work, and devotion to family will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her. Her family takes comfort in knowing that her spirit will continue to be present in every family gathering, shared meal, and cherished memory.

The family invites you for food and fellowship at the Mandan Eagles Club (1400 Collins Ave) following the committal.

Funeral Services for Maggie Schlosser

Rosary & Parish Vigil

Wednesday, June 10, 2026; 7:00 PM
Weigel Funeral Home, Mandan, ND
Presider: Dcn. Randy Frohlich

Mass of Christian Burial

Thursday, June 11, 2026; 10:30 AM
Church of St. Joseph, Mandan, ND
Celebrant: Fr. Josh Waltz

Urn Bearers

Myles Schlosser
Brady Leingang

Honorary Urn Bearer

Hunter Stoeberl

Lectors

Bonnie Schlosser
Samantha Brandenburg

Musicians

Regina McLain
Mary Sammons

Order of Service

Prelude

Processional Song

"All is Well with My Soul"

"On Eagles Wings"

Liturgy of the Word

Old Testament Reading

Responsorial Psalm

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

Psalms 25

"To You, O Lord, I Lift My Soul."

New Testament Reading

Gospel Reading

Homily

1 Corinthians 15:51-57

Matthew 5:1-12a

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Preparation of Gifts Song

Presentation of Gifts

Eucharistic Prayer

Communion Songs

Communion Meditation

Final Commendation

Closing Song

"Be Not Afraid"

"I am the Bread of Life"

"Ava Maria"

"Song of Farewell"

"Amazing Grace"

Committal Service

12 Noon, North Dakota Veterans Cemetery
Mandan, ND

Scan the QR Code to watch
Maggie's Celebration of Life Tribute Video