

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

Acknowledgement

The family of Freddy wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation, the many expressions of love and kindness shown to them during this time of bereavement. "Special Thanks" to Norm , Brother and the special Cousins who came through.

You know who you are... and God is going to bless you for your love and support.

Obituary

Fredrick Clay Durr, age 63, passed away on August 19, 2026 at home in Columbus, Ohio.

Freddy was a member of Seventh Ave. Community Baptist Church under the direction of Pastor Emmett Moore Jr. He was also a beloved figure in his community on West Broad Street between Wilson Road and Galloway. There he shared his testimony daily with any and everyone who would listen. SPECIAL THANKS to his good friend Bob and the Victory Fitness Family, Kroger and Popeyes Chicken who all showed him unconditional love.

Freddy was proceeded in death by his father, Fred Durr Sr.; mother, Louana Hardiman- Durr; sisters, Shirley Jones and Neicy Gates; nephew, Devon Durr and other family members.

He is survived by Sister: Tibby (Aaron) Durr-Watkins; Brother: Daniel Durr; Brother-in-Law: Norman Jones and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. Freddy's best friends were William Whitehead and his ride or die cousin Jerry Andrews Jr aka "Brother."

Freddy used to say that the Lord put him to sleep for six months (comatose from a severe brain injury), so he would wake up spiritually. That's the "miracle" that he often spoke of.

*Freddy's legacy will continue to inspire others, leaving a mark on the lives of many.

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts,
and there you will remain,
to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again.
