Acknowledgements

The family of Torrance Brown extends our heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of love, kindness, and support shown to us during this time of loss. Whether you offered a prayer, sent a card, brought food, called, visited, or simply held us in your thoughts, please know that every gesture has brought comfort to our hearts. Your love has reminded us that we do not walk this journey alone. A special thank you to our extended family, friends, neighbors, Newton County High School Class of 1995, Sherwin-Williams Company and to everyone who shared in Torrance's life. We are deeply grateful for the strength your presence has provided. May God bless each of you for your compassion, your kindness, and your continued prayers.

With love and appreciation,
The Brown Family

Obituary

On December 30, 1975, God blessed Jimmy and Gwendolyn Brown with a baby boy—their beloved middle son whom they named Torrance Quintrell Brown. Born in Newton County and raised in Covington, Georgia, Torrance grew up surrounded by love, family, and a strong sense of community.

Torrance graduated from Newton County High School in 1995, where he proudly played on the Newton County Rams football team. He attended Clark Atlanta University, becoming part of the CAU Panther family and building lifelong friendships. Known affectionately as “Bear,” Torrance’s warm spirit, strength, and humor left an imprint on everyone who knew him.

On January 21, 2026, Torrance entered his heavenly home, leaving behind a legacy of love, loyalty, and cherished memories.

A Loving Father & Grandfather Torrance was the proud father of: Torrance Quintrell Brown, Jr. (TJ), Talib Zaire Brown, and Deondra Gilbert. His heart overflowed with joy for his precious granddaughter, Princess Dallas “Scoot” Jackson who brought him immeasurable happiness.

Torrance was preceded in death by his father, Mr. Jimmy Brown Sr., his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie James “Sam” Brown and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett and Catherine Wade.

Torrance leaves his love and many special memories with his loving and devoted mother, Ms. Gwendolyn Brown, his children: TJ, Talib, and Deondra, His beautiful granddaughter, Miss Dallas “Scoot” Jackson. Brothers: Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Jr. (Valveeta) Brown and Mr. Jimmeal Brown. His nephews: Andrew, Jimmy, and Grayson Brown, his niece: Zaria Brown. His loving fiancée, Ms. Natasha Mills.

Aunts & Uncles: Mr. & Mrs. Oscar (Carolyn) Webb, His Godparents are Mr. & Mrs. James (Carolyn) Brown, Mr. & Mrs. Michael (Patricia) Hayes, San Antonio, Texas, Ms. Viann Nalls, Mr. and Mrs. Terry (Vivian) Gaither, Ms. LaShawn Williams, Mr. Walter Thomas, Ms. Krissandra Brown, Mr. Patrick Brown and Ms. Patricia Brown.

Faithful Friend: Mr. Paul Fox. And a host of cousins, friends, and colleagues who will forever hold him close in their hearts.
