Forever In Our Hearts

In tears we saw you sinking and watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost breaking, We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping so peacefully and free from pain,
How could we wish you back to suffer that again?
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home

Loving Submitted,

Your Family

IN APPRECIATION

The family of the late Harold C. Brown sincerely thank each of you for the many acts of kindness and all other expressions of sympathy extended to us during our time of bereavement. May God bless each one of you.

Life Reflections

Harold Clinzo Brown entered into eternal rest on Sunday, March 1, 2020 at Columbia Veterans Administration Health Care after an extended illness.

Harold was born in Camden, South Carolina on January 14, 1947. He was the son of the late Robert M. Brown, Sr. and the late Sadie Brown.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, one sister, and two sons.

Harold was a graduate of Jackson High School. After graduation, he enlisted in the United States Army.

After returning home, he was employed by Cogsdill Tool Company, DuPont, and Taylor Brothers of Columbia, South Carolina.

Harold was a lifelong member of Camden Second Presbyterian Church.

Those left to cherish his memory and celebrate his homegoing are two daughters: Nosia Sanders of Georgia and Crystal B. Haggins (Javon) of Elgin, SC; three sons: Steven Wright, Christopher Thompson, and Harold C. Brown, Jr.; thirteen grandchildren; two brothers: Joseph C. Brown of Harrisburg, PA and Theodore Brown (Barbara) of Camden, SC; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, and other family members and friends.
