God's Garden

You are not forgotten
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will always remember thee

A million times we will miss you
A million times we will cry
If love alone would have saved you
You never would have died.

In life we all loved you dearly
In death we love you still
In our hearts you hold a place
No other one can fill

The golden gates stood open
God saw you needed rest
God's garden must be beautiful
For He always picks the best

Obituary

Hattie Elizabeth Barlow Malone was born on April 23, 1920 to the late Bedford Barlow Sr. and Ora Lee Tisdale Barlow in Park City Kentucky.

She received Christ at an early age and later became a member of First Liberty Baptist Church.

She worked for over five families doing housekeeping and help to raise their children, for over thirty years.

She married Ollie Malone Sr. and moved to Cincinnati, Ohio in 1953, he later preceded her in death and also her oldest son Edward Alan Malone preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter, Laverne Malone; one son, Ollie Malone Jr.; one brother, of Louisville, Kentucky Garnett Barlow; one grandson, James Michael Walker; one granddaughter, Diana Roberts; and two great grandsons, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalms 23

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want;
he maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leads me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leads me in the paths of righteousness
for his name sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the Shadows of death, I will fear no evil; for thou Art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
