Pauline was born Wednesday May 3rd 1961 in The Pas, Manitoba to Bella and Leo Sinclair. Pauline went to school until grade six. She loved reading, writing, and doing math. She was always affectionate and outgoing and loved to give away her stuffed toys. Pauline continued to speak her Cree language and still recognized family members who went to visit her, despite many years had past. Pauline had epilepsy due to a brain injury at 6 months old and at seventeen she left home to live in a care facility for 45 years.

Pauline's favorite childhood friends were Anne Caribou and Freda Caribou. They loved to play tag and run around the neighborhood. She had a happy personality and was a vivid collector of stuff; toys, books, colouring books, pencils, crayons, and pens.

Pauline passed away Saturday May 27th 2023 at St. Boniface Hospital Winnipeg, Manitoba at the age of 62 years.

Pauline is survived by her mother Bella, who is a retired teacher; five siblings Darlene. Gordon, Adelard, Tony and Denise.

Pauline was predeceased by two brothers Harvey and Robert; two younger sisters Jean and Patty; maternal grandparents and paternal grandparents who have gone to heaven. Along with numerous relatives too many to list.

*My sister Pauline,
may your laughter be full like a song,
When you walk on the fields of flowers, catch a few butterflies for us as you travel across the skies.
We will miss you. Always*

*She was like a rainbow to me,
Giving hugs, clapping hands and playing with her.
Pauline had a vivid laugh when she was happy
Love, Anne Caribou, your childhood friend*

*Safe travels sister,
in the field of flowers where butterfly freely wander, may you find your wings.*

Hugs for others that went before us. Pray for us that have stayed behind, we will miss you.
