

GOD SAW

God saw you getting tired,
and a cure was not to be,
So he put his arms around you,
and whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer and saw you fade away.
Although we could not bear to lose you,
we could not bid you to stay.
A golden heart stopped beating.
Hard working feet were laid to rest.
God tests our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

*Our hearts will forever be broken. We will always remember you
-Your Children*

Acknowledgements

We take this opportunity to express our profound gratitude to all our loved ones. We would especially like to thank Minister Steven Milton, along with the musician, soloists, friends, and family who've all participated in helping us honor our dad's life. We are grateful for your continued support and love during our time of need. Special thanks to Ms. Rebecca, owner of Davis Funeral Home and the staff for their continued support, generosity, and kindness.

Pallbearers

Dallas Jeter Rolando Jeter
Jesse Jeter Eddie Jeter
Anthony Hendon

Celebrating THE LIFE OF

Eddie D. Jeter, Jr.

SUNRISE May 20, 1956 ~ SUNSET October 15, 2024

Saturday, November 2, 2024 at 11:00am

DAVIS FUNERAL HOME
89 Walnut Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts
Pastor Steven Milton, Officiate

"The Essence of a man's life is how well he uses his fishing rod."

Sunset

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Eddie Duane Jeter, Jr. on October 15th, 2024 at the age of 68. He was the eldest out of five children to the union of Mr. Eddie Jeter Sr. & Mrs. Darlene Jeter.

Casting his line

Born on May 20th, 1956 in Elyria, Ohio, Eddie Jeter spent his life to live according to his own terms. He was known for his unwavering support, kindness, and sense of humor. Whether it was his love for martial arts, deep sea fishing, oriental art, or simply wanting to always assist a friend in need.

Setting up his line

Throughout his career, at Waste Management and Jet-A-Way, a rubbish company started by his parents. Eddie developed a love for demolition, and Eagle Demolition, Inc was born. His business venture covered the greater Boston, and South Shore areas. He was known for his hard work, dedication, passion and doing everything with excellence.

Eddie was also characterized for his vibrant and energetic laugh, sarcasm, and burst of rejuvenating energy. Amongst his friends he was known the life of the party as his love for all types of music. Eddie was known for his love of deep sea fishing. Eddie lived a life full of excitement and purpose, and we hope that the memories we share today will help us feel closer to him even though he is no longer here with us physically.

Closing his reel

Thou hast taught me to say, it is well...

Eddie Jeter was preceded in death by his father Eddie Jeter, Sr. and mother Darlene Jeter. He is survived by his beloved children, Darlene Jeter, Eddie Jeter, Nadea Mak and Dallas Jeter and grandchildren, who will forever carry his memory in their hearts. He is also survived by siblings, Anthony Henson, Ronnie, Eric, and Jesse Jeter and host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and close friends.

Gone fishing

He will be deeply missed but will remain in our hearts forever. You may now continue to fly high and we pray you found a good fishing spot.

Order of Service

Opening Prayer

Scripture Reading

Rev. Steven Milton

Old Testament: Psalms 103: 1-5

New Testament Isaiah 40: 31

Prayer of Comfort

Elder William Dorton

Solo

Nigel Gordan

Poem

Annie Rivera, Aunt

Obituary

Elder William Dorton

Reflections (2 minutes each) Family and Friends

Eulogy

Rev. Steven Milton

Closing Prayer

Military Honors and Interment

MOUNT HOPE CEMETERY

355 Walk Hill Street, Mattapan, Massachusetts