In Loving Memory of Garry Lee Ned, Sr.

June 30, 1958 – February 3, 2026

Garry Lee Ned, Sr. was born on June 30, 1958, to Irma Lee and Sidney Ned. Garry was raised and educated in Louisiana, where he proudly graduated from Eunice High School.

Garry was caring, intelligent, and strong-willed. He was known for his warm spirit and friendly nature; he truly never met a stranger. Outspoken yet compassionate, Garry spoke his mind honestly and directly, always standing firm in his beliefs. He had a generous heart and was ever willing to help others, leaving a lasting impression on everyone he encountered.

Following high school, Garry enlisted in the United States Army, where he served with honor and pride. A natural leader, he excelled in his military career and received numerous awards, including the Army Service Ribbon, Army Good Conduct Medal, Army Achievement Medal, NCO Professional Development Ribbon, three Sharpshooter Badges, and the Expert Grenade Badge. His dedication, discipline, and leadership were evident in every aspect of his service. After completing his military career, Garry carried his strong work ethic into civilian life and retired from Georgia-Pacific in 2024.

Garry accepted Christ at an early age and became a devoted member of Second Baptist Church in Louisiana. Alongside his twin brother and two relatives, he formed a gospel singing group that ministered through song in the community and during holidays. His love for music and worship reflected his deep faith and joyful spirit.

On February 3, Garry peacefully transitioned to glory while surrounded by the love of his devoted wife.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory of his beloved wife, Brenda Ned; his two sons, Garry Lee Ned, Jr., and Terrell Ned Skinner; one sister, Melonie P. Ned-Ceaser; and three brothers, David G. Dixon, Robert L. Ned, and Derrick D. Ned. Garry was preceded in death by his parents; his brothers Larry Lee Ned (his twin), Sidney Ned Jr., and Lincoln Ned; and his sisters Irma L. Pierre, Jacqueline M. Jackson, Mary Jane O'Connor, Senthia G. Ned, Joyce Bushnell, and Anne Poullard. He also leaves behind special sisters-in-law, Tara Ned- Hall, Debra Ned, Joann Wilson, and Vivian Hunt; a host of cherished nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever treasure his life, love, laughter, and legacy.

Gone from our sight, but never from our hearts. Your legacy of love, strength, and service will live on forever.
