Obituary

Gracie Waldburg, born on May 9, 1938, peacefully passed away on September 27, 2025. She was one of 5 children born to John and Fanny Waldburg. Gracie leaves behind her beloved sons, James and Samuel Halstion, as well as a legacy of love and resilience.

Throughout her life, Gracie was a devoted mother to her five children: Jean (deceased), James, Samuel, Dianne (deceased), and Ann (deceased). She cherished her family and was proud of her role as a grandmother to Jermele, Shamone, Michelle, Larry, Laron, Anthony, Devyne, Diane, Felecia, Angie, Sam III, Aaron, Stephen, Thomas, and several great-grandchildren.

Gracie spent most of her adult life in Richmond Hill and was an active member of Bryan Neck Missionary Baptist Church, where she served as an usher. She attended George Washington Carver High School and later moved to Savannah before making her way to New York. In New York, she dedicated many years to working at Florence Nightingale Nursing Home. Eventually, she returned to Atlanta, where she joined Fairfield Baptist Church under Pastor Edwin Dale Worthy, continuing her service as an usher until her health began to decline.

Gracie is survived by her two sons and daughters-in-law, James and Marge Halstion, Samuel and Ann Halstion; as well as her siblings, Christine Campbell of Savannah, GA, and Richard Waldburg of New York, NY; and sisters-in-law, Nadine Waldburg, Gilda Waldburg, and Floreta Waldburg. She will be deeply missed by her loving nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and all who knew her.

Gracie Waldburg's warmth, strength, and unwavering spirit will forever remain in the hearts of her family and friends.
