Life Reflections

Wesley Lee Cameron, Jr. “Sugah Man” was born in Boston, MA on May 6, 1961, he was the second child and ONLY SON of Wesley L. Cameron, Sr. and Flora Cameron. He departed this life on Friday November 24, 2023, at Brigham and Women’s Hospital in Boston surrounded by his loving wife and children.

Wesley attended Boston Public Schools, later graduating from Madison Park High School in 1979. He later met Lisa Clark (NC), the mother of his 3 children; Wesley L. Cameron III, Kyle J. Cameron, and Liahna J. Cameron. Wesley dedicated 25 years at Mr. Sid in Newton, MA, relocating to Saks 5th Avenue in Boston, MA for the last 15 years.

He then met Tayla in 2013 at DCI Dialysis in Jamaica Plain, MA from there they truly found love in a hopeless place. Exchanging vows on September 10, 2016, at St. Mark Congregational Church in Roxbury. Tayla is the love of his life and best friend.

Wesley was a humble, kind, loving, and caring person, husband, father, grandfather aka Sugah Pa, son, brother, uncle and friend. He loved cooking, baking, and watching the Boston Celtics and the New England Patriots. He was a sharp dresser. Everyone knew him for his style. Wesley loved his life and was a true and dear friend to many.

He is preceded in death by his father Wesley L. Cameron, Sr., paternal (John Lee Cameron and Mary T Cameron) and maternal (Frank Clark and Fannie Bullock) grandparents, his great aunt and brother in love Brandon Duarte.

Wesley leaves to cherish his beautiful memories, wife Tayla Cameron, 3 children: Wesley L. Cameron, III (NC), Kyle J. Cameron (NJ), and Liahna J. Cameron (NC), his 3 granddaughters Aria, Ryleigh and Anna Lee Cameron all of (Raleigh, NC). his mother Flora Cameron (Milton, MA), siblings; Patricia Holmes (Stephen Mikell), Donna Jones (Eugene Jones), Cheryl Cameron (Gerald Trustee), all of Massachusetts. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Sugah Man you will truly be missed!!
