If this were my last day I'm almost sure I'd spend it working in my garden. I would dig about my little plants, and try
To make them happy, so they would endure
Long after me. Then I would hide secure
Where my green arbor shades me from the sky,
And watch how bird and bee and butterfly
Came hovering to every flowery lure.
Then, as I rested, perhaps a friend or two,
Lovers of flowers would come,
And we would walk
About my little garden paths and talk
Of peaceful times when all the world
Seemed true.
This may be my last day, for all I know;
What a temptation just to spend it so!
