Obituary

Curtis Lee Toney, 69, of Roanoke, Virginia, passed away peacefully at Roanoke Memorial Hospital on Friday, September 11, 2026, with his loving daughter, Shea, by his side. He was born on May 27, 1957, in Rocky Mount, Virginia, to the late George William and Shirley Keys Toney.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Ray Toney; his niece, Shea Belcher; and his nephew, Kane Belcher.

Curtis was a jack of all trades. He loved working with his hands, helping others, making people laugh, and bringing joy to everyone with a joke or two. Above all, Curtis loved spending time with his daughter, grandson, and other family members.

He is survived by: his wife, Melendia Darlene Toney; daughter, Lakita Shea Toney-Hearns (Memi); his grandson, Eimmij Webb; and his five sisters, Sally (Gordon) Belcher, Blondell (Robert) Jamison-Mack, Sarah Campbell, Audrey Smith and Carla Manns Rorrer. He is also survived by his two brothers, Larry Jamison and Calvin Toney; two uncles, Maceo Toney and Ronnie Toney; and a host of nieces, nephews, a special great niece, Munshae, other loved ones, a special friend, Rudie Murrell, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.

Always There

When you remember me,
Please do not weep.
My body may not be there.
It has chosen to sleep.
I'm not that far away.
My soul lives on,
Looking down, watching over
You and everyone.
And when you feel sad
And life seems so blue,
Just remember
That my spirit has its arms around you.
And on those special days,
Times that you wish I could see,
That cool breeze flowing past you...
Well, that will be me,
So don't be sad.
Have no fear.
God has taken me under his wing,
But I'll always be near.
I still watch you
Every minute, every day.
My love and soul are with you,
And that's where they will stay.
