THE LIFE & LEGACY OF
Deacon Michael L.
THOMAS

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." - 2 Timothy 4:7 (KJV)

Michael was a man of quiet strength, unwavering integrity, and genuine compassion. Throughout his life, he exemplified perseverance, humility, and a deep love for others.

Professionally, Michael worked as a Warehouse Foreman, where he was respected for his leadership, dependability, and strong work ethic. He took great pride in his work and earned the admiration of colleagues through his commitment and dedication.

Faith was the foundation of Michael's life. He faithfully served as a Deacon at Cathedral of Deliverance under the leadership of Bishop Charles B. Eichelberger. His servant's heart, steadfast faith, and commitment to God were evident in the way he encouraged and supported those around him. Michael found great joy in serving his church family and living according to Christian principles.

Known for his warm and gentle spirit, Michael never met a stranger. His calm demeanor, thoughtful conversations, and sincere concern for others made everyone feel welcomed and valued. Whether among family, friends, coworkers, or fellow church members, he consistently reflected love, kindness, and grace.

Michael was preceded in death by his mother, Mary Ashe and his grandmother, Maud Patterson.

Michael leaves to cherish his memory: his father, George L. Thomas, Sr.; his loving brothers, Wayne C. Ash, Glenn Thomas, and George Thomas, Jr. (Jeneen); his nephew, Brandon Thomas; his neices, Anjelica Ash and Georjeena Thomas; along with a host of gran-nieces, gran-nephews, cousins, extended family members, church family, and dear friends whose lives were enriched by his presence.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." - Matthew 25:23 (KJV)
