

Funeral Service
11:00 a.m., Friday, October 2, 2026
Family Life Church
Gillette, Wyoming

Officiant
Pastor Marty Crump

Songs
“God Must Be A Cowboy at Heart”
“I Can Only Imagine”
“Amazing Grace”

Casketbearers
Scott Mackey | Mark Allee
Preston Mackey | Clint Knutson
Ty Maya | Shane Scott

Honorary Casketbearers
Nick Morrison | Nate Morrison
Tyler Morrison
Carter Groene | Colby Groene
Gavin Goode | Clancy Knutson
Cathy Noriega | John Thompson
Pat Fiedor | Jarek Fiedor

Interment
Mount Pisgah Cemetery
Gillette, Wyoming

Military Honors
American Legion Post #42
Honor Guard

The family cordially invites you to a reception and time of fellowship at the church following the service.

Please scan this QR code to share a loving memory or tribute.

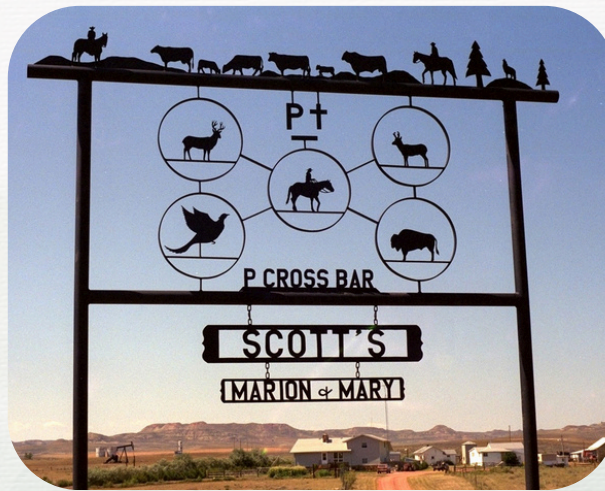

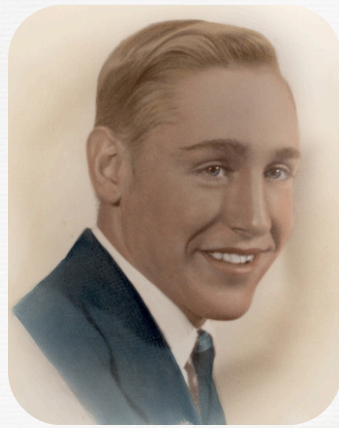

Rita Mashak | Tara Aanonsen
Tara Cowger
Funeral Service-Monuments-
Advance Planning-Cremation-
Lending Library, Learning to say goodbye; children's tour.

Marion Harold Scott passed away peacefully at age 93 with family by his side, on Wednesday, September 23, 2026. Marion was born on November 27, 1932, to Harold and Bertha Jane (Anderson) Scott in Gillette, Wyoming. He was raised on the ranch that was homesteaded by his grandparents in 1917, with his brothers Bill, Jim, and Doug, and sister, Kay. As the oldest of five children, Marion was fondly remembered for his protective and loving nature. The Scott children attended the Lonetree School where they rode their horses to school each day. Marion graduated from Campbell County High School in 1951, and on January 31, 1953, Marion married the love of his life, Mary McClure. Their first home was a one room cabin with dirt floors, no electricity or plumbing. They worked to build their future there and together they raised four daughters, Marilyn, Debbie, Cathy, and Cindy on the Scott family ranch. As a youth, Marion was involved in 4-H and took a variety of livestock projects including the very first horse project in Campbell County with his horse 'Brownie'. He continued his support of 4-H with over 25 years as a 4-H leader and supporting his daughters and grandchildren through 4-H and rodeo. Marion was drafted into the Army at the start of the Korean war and was allowed to continue helping his father on the ranch by serving his duty in the Army National Guard. Marion spent most of his life horseback working side by side with his father to operate and grow the ranch, and as their family grew, Marion and Mary purchased the Ray Gilstrap place adjoining the original Scott Ranch to establish their own home and P Cross Bar Ranch. During those years, Marion mentored many young men and instilled a foundation of hard work, and an appreciation for caring for the land and for their livestock. His influence had a lasting impact on their lives. Marion and his dad started an outfitting business together in the 1960s. This was where he found his passion. He went on many, many hunting trips that took him from the Yukon to Mexico and completed his Grand Slam in 2004. One of his last hunts was hunting Muskox in the Yukon. Marion, alongside his wife, continued to operate P Cross Bar Trophy Hunts for over 60 years, guiding hunters for mule deer, antelope, elk, and buffalo. Marion lived and worked on the ranch in northern Campbell County until the age of 89. He dedicated his entire life to preserving the family ranch for generations to come and instilled the humble values of hard work and maintaining the western lifestyle carried on through his daughters, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. One of his greatest honors was being inducted into the Wyoming Cowboy Hall of Fame in 2023. He shares this honor with his dad and his brother Bill. Marion was a lifetime member of Safari Club International where he served as Chapter President, Director at Large and was awarded Guide of the Year, Outfitter of the Year, North American Professional Hunter of the Year, and was honored with the coveted CJ McElrory Leadership Award. He was an active member of the Wyoming Outfitters and Guides Association for over 40 years where he served as Secretary/Treasurer, Vice President, and President, and was recognized for his contributions to the association as an Honorary Lifetime Member in 2018. Marion served on Mountain West Farm Bureau Board of Directors, was an active member of Wyoming Stock Growers Association and testified before the Wyoming legislature and in Washington, DC on agriculture issues. Marion was also a member of Campbell County Farm Bureau, Grand Slam/OVIS, Boone and Crockett, Family Life Church, and was a lifetime member of the NRA. Marion spent his final years in Primrose Retirement Community in Gillette, Wyoming where he made many friends and enjoyed happy hour and playing poker. He will be remembered for his fierce sense of humor, and his love of cattle, horses, fishing, hunting, and living the western lifestyle. He was a true cowboy. Marion is survived by his daughters, Marilyn (Dudley) Mackey, Debbie (Butch) Knutson, Cindy Lovelace, all of Gillette, WY; grandchildren – Amanda (Patrick) Fiedor – Gillette, WY, Scott (Carey) Mackey – Gillette, WY, Kimberly (Shane) Goode, – Zebulon, NC, Kelly (Jason) Groene – Torrington, WY, Clint (Erin) Knutson – Gillette, WY, Tammy (Chris) Abma – Lexington, MO, Nate Morrison – Interior, SD, Nick (Ivy) Morrison – Roman Forest, TX, Mark Allee – Gillette, WY, Stacy (Dustin) Smoot – Golden, CO, Taylor (Ruben) Kriseldi – Bogor, Indonesia; great grandchildren – Brittany (Jake) Anderson, Ty Maya, Jerzey Fiedor, Jarek Fiedor, Preston Mackey, Macie Mackey, Courtney Goode, Gavin Goode, Natalie Goode, Klacie Groene, Carter Groene, Colby Groene, Clancy Knutson, Klaire Knutson, Janessa Abma, Tyler Morrison, Gracious Morrison, Sadi Maul-Allee, Eliza Kriseldi, Norah Kriseldi; great-great grandchildren – Weston, Orin, Leroy, and Maya Anderson, Hazel Maul-Allee, and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Mary of 71 years, his daughter, Cathy Morrison, his brothers, Bill Scott, Jim Scott, Doug Scott, sister Kay Storms, great granddaughter Korbi Groene, and great-grandson Coyle Allee. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Marion's name to Rockpile Museum Association, Campbell County 4-H, or Wyoming Cowboy Hall of Fame. Memorials and condolences may be sent in care of Gillette Memorial Chapel 210 West 5th Street, Gillette, WY 82716. Condolences may also be expressed at www.gillettmemorialchapel.com

HONORING THE LIFE OF Marion Harold Scott

November 27, 1932 ~ September 23, 2026

A Cowboy's Final Ride Forever Riding Free

Out on the range where the wild winds blow,
He rode with a spirit that all cowboys know.
Hat tipped low and boots worn with pride,
Through life's dusty trails, he took every stride.

The stars were his lantern, the moon lit his way,
He chased every sunset, the end of each day.
A heart full of courage, a soul running free,
He roped all his dreams beneath the wide prairie sea.

Through storms and through sunshine,
He never did fall, with grit and with grace, he gave it his all.
His hand bore the calluses of years on the land,
Each wrinkle a story, each moment unplanned.

Now the herd's moved on to that heavenly plain,
Where the skies are forever, and there's plenty of rain.
His saddle is empty, his laughter now still,
But his legacy lingers on every hill.

The crack of his whip and his boots on the ground,
Echos in hearts where his memories are found.
So, here's to the cowboy, now riding the sky,
Under God's golden sun, where heroes don't die.

He's found greener pastures, his work finally done,
Rest easy, old friend, your last ride's begun.

