

When Tomorrow STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see:
if the sun should rise and find your eyes, are filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.

And each time that you think of me,

I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,

please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name,

and took me by the hand,

and said my place was ready, in Heaven far above,

and that I'd have to leave behind, all those deary love.

But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye, for all my life,

I'd always thought, I didn't want to die

I had so much to live for, so much yet to do.

It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.

I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad I thought of all the love shared, and all the fun we had

If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,

Id say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.

But then I fully realized, that this could never be for empliness and memories,

would now take the place of me

So when tomorrow starts without me.

don't think we're far apart for everytime you think of me,

I'm right here in your heart.

Reflection of PATRICK JONES Amazing Life

2 Timothy 4:7-8

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. And now the prize awaits me —the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.

Patrick “Dig-A -Wheel” Jones, affectionately known as, “PJ” was born in Columbia, SC on June 1, 1957. He was the son of the late Jesse and Dorothy (Hampton) Jones. Surrounded by the comfort of his home, he transitioned peacefully to his eternal rest on Monday, February 2, 2026.

After accepting Christ at an early age, Patrick was baptized at Siloam Baptist Church, Hopkins, SC. After marriage, he joined his wife at Midway Baptist Church in Eastover, SC, where he faithfully served for several years. He and his wife would later join Shiloh AME Church, Eastover SC, where Patrick served as a Trustee, a member of the Mass Choir, and a minister of music as the church’s special drummer. His love for singing “It’s in My Heart”, by Harvey Watkins, Jr., became one of his most cherished expressions of praise. Patrick graduated from Lower Richland High School, Hopkins, SC, in 1976. He was a member of the varsity football and golf teams, and a dedicated bus driver.

Patrick dedicated many years of faithful and skilled service as a truck driver with Argos Ready Mix, from which he later retired. Patrick had a wonderful sense of humor and took great joy in making others laugh. His lighthearted spirit brought happiness wherever he went, and he was a true blessing to his family and community. In his spare time, he found peace in gardening, took pride in grilling, and enjoyed tending to outdoor projects. His children and grandchildren were the joy of his life and brought immeasurable happiness to his soul.

Patrick was preceded in death by his brother, Kenneth Jones.

Patrick leaves a legacy of love that will be forever treasured by family, who will continue to honor and cherish his memory his beautiful and adorable wife of 48 years, Reverend Evelyn Jones; two beautiful daughters, Monica Jones, of Charlotte, NC and Courtney Jones of Columbia, SC; a dear nephew, whom he raised, Jarrah (Adele) Jordan of Mint Hill, NC, three precious granddaughters, Cameron Jones, Caitlyn Jones, of Columbia, SC, and Camora Jones of Charlotte, NC; a very special great grandson, Kyaire Jones of Columbia, SC. He is also survived by seven sisters; Jessie (Robert) Archie, Barbara Scott, Doris Jones, Vanessa Jones, of Hopkins, SC and Abbie Riley and Cassandra Jones of Columbia, SC Tamie Jones of Dallas, TX; two brothers, Pastor Vincent (Sheila) Jones of Eastover, SC and Calvin Jones of Hopkins, SC, sisters-in-law, Judith Jordan, Gail Jordan, Barbara (Ernest) Jones of Columbia, SC, Mattie (Thomas) Dowdy of Eastover, SC, brothers-in-law, Ronald Young, Robert (Grace) Thompson, Leroy “Perry” Wider of Columbia, SC, Calvin Glisson of Sumter, SC, Theodore Thomas of Charleston, SC, Donald (Brenda) Wider of Eastover, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and beloved church family.

A Tribute to Grandpa

Oh, Papa, my heart is aching because you’re gone. I wish I could talk and laugh with you one more time. I know you’re resting now with no more pain. I’ll cherish every second I had with you in this lifetime. Continue to watch over me and your bestie, Ky. I’ll forever love and miss you with my whole heart. Until we meet again my buddy til the end.

~ Love Cammy/Shamo

To my grandpa, whom I love dearest, it’s hard knowing I can’t hear your voice or crack jokes back and forth. For the rest of my life I’ll keep the wisdom and guidance you shared and memories of us two. Oh how blessed I’ve been to have an exceptional grandfather like you. Goodbyes are never forever, nor are they the end. They solely mean I’ll miss you until we see each other again. I love and miss you

- Love Caitty

Grandpa, I still find myself wishing I could hear your voice and laugh with you one more time. Life hasn’t felt the same since you’ve been gone. I miss you every day, and I carry your love and the lessons you taught me wherever I go. I love you and hope you save a spot for me up there.
