

There's a Special Place

There's a special place in Heaven
that's reserved for you and I,
A special little place in our home up in the sky.
If God calls me to Heaven
and I reach it before you do, I promise I'll take care of it the way you'd want me to.
I will keep it warm and tidy –
the way you like a home to be,
And I'll brighten it with Heaven's flowers, angels' songs and poetry.

Obituary

Annette Jones was born on November 11, 1958. She was one of four children born to the late Joann Jones and Lawrence Jones in Cincinnati, Ohio. Annette peacefully entered eternal life on November 27, 2020.

Annette grew up in Mt. Healthy, Ohio. She attended Mt. Healthy City Schools and graduated from Mt. Healthy High School in 1977. There she played on the Softball team and participated in various activities.

At an early age Annette was baptized at Second Baptist Church in Bond Hill, Ohio.

Annette was a free spirit that was loved and adored by a multitude of family, friends and community members. She devoted 36 years to the little league organization, Hilltop Hawks. Annette served as a cheerleading coach and a cheer coordinator/director. If you know her you know that Hilltop was her life. Annette was well known in the city for her amazing first place routines at every competition. Annette also started one of the first all-Black All-Star Cheer teams in the city. She inspired so many young girls to become leaders in their communities and to follow in her footsteps. Annette took so many young girls up under her wings in order for her to help them become the best versions of themselves. If you did not see Annette at a cheer or football event you could always count on her to show up for her grandchildren in which she loved dearly. She was their number one supporter.

Annette is preceded in death by her mother Joann Jones and her father Lawrence Jones.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Sean Jones, Dawn Jones and D'Juan Jones. Her seven grandchildren, Sean Jones Jr., D'Juan Jones Jr., Layla Jones, Ava Jones, Shanti Jones, MarSean Jones, and Kimora Jones. Her brother and sisters, Diann Love, Lawrence (Laura) Jones Jr., Linda Jones and Nitika Saunders. She also leaves behind a host of cousins, nieces and nephews, and friends she truly loved.
