

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth - You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*

An Expression Of Gratitude

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many acts of love and kindness shown during our time of bereavement. We are forever indebted to Andover Subacute and Rehabilitation Center and The Ferguson-Rayam Funeral Home.

We pray that God will continue to bless each of you.

Life Reflections

Ms. Sue Holloway was born January 7, 1941 in Durham, NC to the parentage of the late Ms. Ruth Holloway and the late Mr. John Holloway. She was raised in Creedmoor, NC by her grandparents, the late Rev. and Mrs. William Haskins, Sr. As a young teenager to be with her mom, she moved to Brooklyn, NY where she attended and graduated from high school. She later furthered her educational studies by attending Essex County College and received her Associates Degree.

At an early age, she joined and was baptized at First Baptist Church of Creedmoor, NC, where her grandfather was the pastor. Sue has been a faithful and dedicated member of The Word of God Christian Center, Newark, NJ founded by the late Bishop Horace K. Williams for more than 30 years. She served as Church Secretary and mother of the church. Her clerical skills were exhibited by her program creation and flyers for the church.

She was employed by various companies including MetLife Insurance Company, Newton County Courthouse, Barnhill Nursing Home, and Walmart.

She was predeceased by; her parents, grandparents, great aunts and uncles, Vivian Curtis, her sister, and her beloved daughter, Wahjameen Johnson who passed March 28, 2018.

On November 8, 2018, she answered God’s call and ascended into the Heavenly gates with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Her memory will be forever treasured by; her son, Naeem Johnson (Victoria); daughter, Bali B. Johnson; step-daughter, Chavela Martinez; step-son, Lafayette N. Johnson. She was the best Nana/Mom to her grandchildren, Elisha Johnson, Isaiah Johnson, Bali L. Johnson, Kenneth Michael Johnson, Jeremiah Johnson, Elizabeth Johnson and Nathanael Johnson; great grandchildren, Liam Johnson, Cataleya Johnson, and Zion Liles; one niece, Stephanie C. Gastin (Stanley); two great nieces and one great nephew, many cousins, friends and her Church Family.
