

"To Those I Love & Those Who Love Me"

When I am gone, release me, let me go

I have so many things to see and do

You must not tie yourself to me with tears

Be happy that I have had so many years

I gave you my love, you can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness

I thank you for the love each have shown

But now it is time I travelled on alone

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must

Then let your grief be comforted by trust

It is only for a while that we must part

So bless the memories in your heart

I will not be far away, for life goes on

So if you need me, call and I will come

Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near

And if you listen with your heart, you will hear

All of my love around you soft and clear

Then, when you must come this way alone

I will greet you with a smile and welcome you home.

"Remember Me"

Remember me,

When you think of me, Smile.

I am only gone for a little while,
no more troubles or pain everlasting life,

I have just gained my wings.

May smiles be on your faces when you hear my name.

Remember how blessed I have been to love
and be a part of this world with you all.

Love and memories never die.

So this isn't goodbye, till we meet again

Obituary

Lisa Yvette Mitchell, a radiant source of love and warmth was born on February 27, 1963. She was born to the late Barbara Cokely-Vernon and John Pitts. She departed this life on February 3, 2024.

Lisa committed her life to Christ at an early age. She rededicated her life to Christ and was baptized at God's Gift House of Prayer under the leadership of Pastor Reginald Cole and Co-Pastor Miesha Cole where she devoted her last membership. Lisa served and utilized that radiant smile as a "Greeter" in the house of the Lord.

Lisa was a graduate of Walnut Hills High School, Cincinnati, Ohio. She was a well-known and beloved figure in her community who met no strangers. She was affectionately named several nicknames "Auntie", "Moose," "Babysitter" and "Graveyard". Beyond her immediate family, Lisa earned the title of the "Mother of the Community" where she was well-known and respected. Her nurturing spirit and love made her a central figure in the lives of those around her. Lisa nurtured every child that she came in contact with as if they were her own. If you were blessed to be around her then you know she was full of love, laughter, caring, and a joy to be around. In fact, let's just say she was DEFINITELY the life of the party!

Lisa found joy in life's simple pleasures, including babysitting, and cooking. She enjoyed eating her popcorn, dancing, and playing cards. She was also known for her special fried chicken and "Getting her Money, even if it's $5.00."

Lisa was preceded in death by her siblings Keith Vernon, John Cornell Vernon, Eartha Vernon-Brown, and Shirley Williams. Daughter, Latoya Yvette Mitchell.

She cherishes her memories of her sister Valerie Vernon. Children: Clarence Orlando Vernon, Inger Vernon, Antonio Vernon, Shamika Mitchell. Seven grandchildren- Aiyanna, Deasia, Alphonso Grace, Jr., Demaiya, Delilah, Clarice, and Clarence; Four great-grandchildren; Za'Riah, Celeste, Aliyya, and Avianna. She also leaves behind a host of other nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

You can only have one mother
Patient kind & true;
 No other friend in all the world
 Will be the same to you.
 When others friends forsake you,
 To mother you will return,
 For all her loving kindness,
 She asks nothing in return.
 As we look upon her picture,
 Sweet memories we recall,
 Of a face so full of sunshine,
 And a smile for one and all.
 Sweet Jesus, take this message,
 To our dear mother up above;
 Tell her how we miss her,
And give her all our love.

"The Broken Chain"

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name, In life we loved you dearly; in death we will do the same It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, but as God call us one by one, the chain will link again.

Love your Children, until we see you again!
