

George Cloyd Jackman, 68, passed away surrounded by his family on January 2, 2025 in Murray Utah.

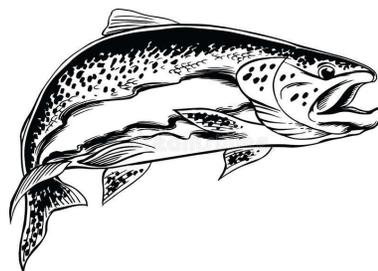

He was born on October 25, 1956 in Payson Utah to Arley and Marie Jackman and was the 4th child of 6.

At a very young age he became a father to Tena but was never married. He married Cindie Gafa on July 12, 1974. They had 3 children and later divorced. He married Carole Joseph Nielson on November 11, 1988 and she had 4 children of her own.

He was a coal miner and a long haul truck driver. He loved traveling coast to coast. Hauling rocket engines from Salt Lake to Cape Canaveral was his favorite job. He had a love for camping and fishing and being with his friends and family. He almost always had a smile on his face and a laugh to go along with it, He suffered an accident in 2005 that made doing all the things he loved a major challenge. He then became so good at taking care of those he loved. He was always caring for others. Taking them to appointments, working in their yards, and the whole time making sure Carole was okay. He loved her so very much.

He is survived by his wife Carole Jackman; children, Tena Gardner, Heidi (Hans) Rasmussen; Jessica (Ryan) Weitz; Cody Jackman (Adrian Hamilton); Lisa (Gary) Van Wagenen; Rachelle (Ed) Bowers; Rodney Nielson; Tina (Jason) Garland; 16 Grand children and 10 (1 on the way) Great Grand Children.

He is preceded in death by his parents Arley and Marie Jackman, Sister Bernetta, and his brothers David, Ron, Corey and Ricky.

The Whispering Wind

It's normal that you shed a tear
When first I took my leave
But know that I am happy here
No need for you to grieve

The beauty that's surrounding me
Would take your breath away
There's colors that I can't describe
The air's a sweet bouquet

Don't worry 'bout the things unsaid
There's nothing to forgive
Don't lay your heart upon the past
Just let our memories live

And though your earthly eyes can't see
Believe that I am there
When'er you feel the whispering wind
Flow gently through your hair

I'm there when fireflies light the dark
When candles mark a year
I'm there when you are far from home
And when you need an ear

I'm always just a thought away
Our souls could never part
Connected for eternity
Forever in your heart
