

Forever...in our Hearts

Loving Tribute

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says grieve not for me.
Remember the best time, the laughter, the song,
the good life I lived, while I was strong.
Continue on, I am counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all how I am truly blessed.
Continue tradition, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep your chin up until the day comes when we are together again.*

Life Reflections

MRS. SCNELLIA HAINES was born September 27, 1933 to the union of James Luther Toney and Alice Ross Toney. She was born and raised in the Union Chapel Community of Springfield, Arkansas.

Scnellia was educated in the Menifee School District. She played basketball and was a great player.

She confessed a belief in Christ at the Greater Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Union Chapel, Arkansas.

Scnellia moved to St. Louis, MO where she married Wilbert Haines and raised eight children.

She was preceded in death by two children: Gary Wayne Toney and Lance Corporal Robert Haines; siblings: Mae W. Warren, Lorene Elliot, Albert Toney, Grover Toney, Ophelia Walls, Nola Helen Williams, Rosa Lee and Althea Toney.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her husband Wilbert Haines of 72 years in marriage and her children: Caroline Marie Haines Davis, Wilbert Donell Haines Jr., Randle Haines, Helen Irene Haines, Gregory and Rochelle Haines and Rochelle and Michael Mayweather; siblings: brothers James A. Toney and Charles Toney; sister: Blomer Jones; sixteen grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Loving Tribute

MOM, it is not easy to talk to you when you're not here. Also, you know that my words can't even come close to all the wisdom and love that you've given me while I was growing up, and when I was an adult.

The private jokes we shared, the tears I had when I knew you were hurting. Mom, you and dad had the most beautiful spirit that I've ever seen.

I can't tell you what a privilege it was to be your son.

Enjoy those perfect fitted angel wings.

WITH ALL MY HEART. LOVE YOU, Ladybird.
