

A husband so devoted,
A father strong and true,
A brother and a son beloved,
We give our hearts to you.

You walked this life with purpose,
With kindness, faith, and grace,
And though our hearts are broken,
We feel your warm embrace.

Your laughter still surrounds us,
Your love will never fade,
For every life you touched on Earth
Was brighter for your aid.

God called you home too early,
But we trust His gentle plan—
For Heaven gained an angel
The day He took your hand.

So rest now in His promise,
Your work on Earth is done,
Your light still shines within us all,
Our husband, father, brother, son.

In Loving Memory Of
Tyler D. Williams

May 29, 1990 – October 16, 2025

Obituary

Tyler DeWayne Williams, age 35, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, passed away on October 16, 2025, in Lima, Ohio, following a brief stay at St. Rita's Hospital.

Born on May 29, 1990, in Bellefontaine, Tyler was the beloved son of Tony L. (Monique) Williams and Vanessa A. (George) Hunter. He graduated from Bellefontaine High School and later married Leah R. Williams in Bellefontaine.

Tyler was employed as a postal carrier with the United States Postal Service until the onset of his illness in 2024. A devoted fan of The Ohio State Buckeyes and the Dallas Cowboys, Tyler also took great pride in maintaining his home and yard.

He will be remembered for his quiet generosity, enthusiastic spirit, goofy sense of humor that could bring a smile to anyone's face and Tyler had a strong faith in God all the way until his last breath.

Tyler is survived by his loving wife, Leah R. Williams, and four children: Aunesti of Delaware, Ohio and Liam, Aria, and Alyssa all at home. He is also survived by his siblings Tony L. Williams II of Washington, D.C.; Teree L. (Miriah) Williams of Louisville, Kentucky; Tamirra D. (Lorenzo) Baker of Radcliff, Kentucky; and step-siblings Melvin Hunter of Bellefontaine, Chandra Hunter of Virginia, and Jasmine and Ciera Williams of Cleveland, Ohio.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Abraham Sr. and Janice Kenner of Bellefontaine; grandmother Pricilla Williams of Lima; and grandfather Charles Thomas of Lima, Ohio.

Tyler is also remembered by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, and his godfather Blake A. Kenner Sr.

Pallbearers

Melvin Hunter Daniel Whetsel
Tony L. Williams II Lorenzo Baker
Te'ree Williams Blake Kenner II

Honorary

Keith Glover
De'andre Tucker
Cortland Martin

Order of Service

Prelude	Instrumental Music
Welcome	Te'ree Williams
Opening Prayer & Remarks	Pastor Robin E. Ricks
Song Selection	Talmarita Kenner
OT Scripture Reading & Remarks	Anthony Kenner
NT Scripture Reading & Remarks	Blake Kenner
Reading of Obituary	Miriah Williams
Song Selection	Talmarita Kenner
Special Remarks	Pastors, Family Members, Friends
Song Selection	Talmarita Kenner
Message	Bishop Tony L. Williams

Congregational Viewing

Family Viewing

Interment

Bellefontaine Cemetery