Letter to My Daddy

Hey Dad, its me Buff ya daughter. I hope now your at peace. I've watched you hurt for as long as I can remember. When my mom died it took something from both of us but you tried for my sake to do the best you could being a single father of a daughter. You were the best dad anyone could ask for. You raised me and took care of me even though it was tough and everyone thought you would fail at the task but you didn't you stayed by my side every step of the way and I will always love you for never giving up on me. You recently asked me did I think you did good as my Dad and I told you you did a great job. I wouldn't be the person I am today without you. You taught me right from wrong, made me to be the smart, independent, tough, courageous, funny, strong willed, caring, determined, responsible, loving person I am today. You did that and you taught me how to hold my own and to never depend on no one not even you. I remember being a kid and you taking me everywhere, you made sure I never wanted for anything. You made not having a mom less hard. What kid do you know had their own phone line in their room at 6 yrs old. You gave me everything a child could want and love was at the top of the list. You were there for good times and bad. I will forever miss hearing your big mouth talking to me. We had our ups and downs but no matter what other people thought about our unorthodox relationship we always had each others back. You were not just a father you were my friend, the hommie, my teacher, advisor, smoking buddy, getaway driver - lol. You were every thing to me cus we were all we had. You did good Dad and I'll always love and miss you so much.

Love Always and Forever

Buff

Tributes

Pop-Pop or Papa for Arina we know you can no longer be with us, you fought long and hard to be with us. We know you now watch over and protect us. Although we cannot hear your voice or see your smiling face we know deep down in our hearts that you have not left us. From Pooh and Arina.

Your grand and great-grand daughter (Tayuania and Ariana)

Dear Pop-Pop, It's me Nelly your grandson. I'm so glad I got to see you before you checked out on us. You were tough on me but it was only because you wanted me to be and do better and I respect you for that. I'm going to miss seeing you and you making me laugh. My heart is heavy and I just wanna say, I love you and hope your at peace.

Love your grandson Nelly

To the inspiration Wiley, that gave me the foundational tools on how to be a man. I shall pass these tools onto the next generation. I just want to say smoke on because now you're in the greatest place with the best herbs.

Love Eric
