THE LIFE STORY OF ANTONETTE ROSE SPENCER

Antonette Rose Spencer, was born to the late William Turner and Zinna Hall in Philadelphia, PA on April 6, 1957. She was immersed in religion with a special interest in Christianity though attending Catholic school in her younger years. She furthered her spiritual education over the years as she became a Missionary at the Upper Room.

Antonette was blessed with three children. She had her first two children as a young adult and in the early 80s she met the love of her life Micheal Spencer and they shared a third child together. In the late 90s the two married and raised all three children together. She provided sound and tough love ensuring they had normal societal education but also taught them street values based on the community they were raised in. Antonette was also big on her children being involved in extracurricular activities. She made certain that she was a continuous provider working two jobs for several years, day time she worked as a Program Assistant in the Processing and Underwriting Division of the Philadelphia Homeownership Center of the U.S. Department of the Housing and Urban Development and night shift as a Nursing Assistant at Episcopal Hospital.

Antonette is survived by her sons Varian and Brandon Turner; her daughter Salina Harrison and son in law DeCarlos Harrison; her grandchildren Munir Turner, Tyree Thomas, Brandon Jr and Kobe Turner; Jalen and Avani Harrison. She is preceded in death by her brothers William and Darryl Turner; sisters Roselyn Johnson, Chrystal Griffin and Melodye Winston.

DEAR MOTHER

In tears we saw you sinking,
We saw you fade away.
You suffered much in silence,
You fought so hard to stay.
You faced your task with courage,
Your spirit did not bend.
But you still kept on fighting,
Until the very end.
God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be,
So he put his arms around you;
And whispered "Come to me!".
So when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful, free from pain.
We could not wish you back,
To suffer that again.
In God's own time, we will meet again.

LETTER FROM SON

Dear Mom, I just want to thank you.
Thank you for always having my back and believing in me.
You gave us your all.
You instilled respect in me and others.
You taught me to respect someone's actions and not their words.
I'm going to miss you mom.
There's not a women alive that will ever take your place.
I'm assured of your love even though we are apart,
'Cause so much we've shared is written in my heart.
Your job is done, rest well,
I love you Mommy!
Love, Brandon, your Brandy

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
For his name's sake.
Even though I walk through
The valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
For you are with me;
Your rod and your staff,
They comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
In the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy
Shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
