"Jesus Love"

Jesus loves me I know
 His word tells me so
 To him and God I belong
 I'm weak, they are strong
 They forgives
 To help the life I lives
 -Amen

Order of Service

Charles was born in Tunica, Mississippi, to Dorothy M. Woodley and Jonah Jones. Charles and his family moved to Kansas City when he was six years old. He graduated from Southeast High School with a desire to own a carpet cleaning company. To learn more, he worked for his uncle, Jimmy Woodley, of Woodley Building Maintenance. His uncle Jimmy and wife, Robbery Woodley (deceased), fathered and mentored him in the janitorial business.

During a time of illness, Charles was admitted to North Kansas City Hospital. After his recovery, he was hired by North Kansas City Hospital to learn management. He went on to start his own carpet cleaning company while continuing to work part-time for his uncle Jimmy, until he became ill again and had to retire.

Charles had seven children, whom he loved deeply and never turned away. He never spanked them for misbehaving, even when advised to do so. His children are Torrion J Betts, Charles L. Jones, Kresha K. Betts, Tami Ware, Carlos Betts, Donta C. Betts, Cino White.

Charles loved to dress sharp, attend church, and read the Bible.

Charles was blessed with three favorite aunts—Pearl, Puten, and Robbery; his uncle, Jimmy; his mother, Dorothy; many cousins, many friends, and a special brother, Carl Woodley.
