Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.

Life Story Of Sandra L. Butler

Sandra Butler was born on February 26, 1946 to the union of Nellie Johnson and Theodore Johnson. Sandra as a young girl resided in North Philadelphia and also attended the Philadelphia school system.

She married James Butler and out of that union was born seven children. After her husband passed, Sandy found love again with Andrew Gilmer, and was blessed with Shawniece and 20 more years of happiness with him.

She loved to volunteer her time to after school programs and she even volunteered to be a girl scout leader. All the kids loved and respected her.

Sandy as they called her for was loving and a giving person. She will be sorely missed by her friends and family but we will keep her in our hearts.

She leaves to mourn her surviving sister Beverly Johnson, her kids Stevie, Jimmy, Jerry, Warren, Viola, Wanda, Anthony, Shawniece, grandkids Charlene, Tiesha and a host of great grandkids. We love you but God loves you more.

Submitted with Love,
The Family
