THE LIFE & LEGACY OF

Kenneth W. McClain

Kenneth “Kenny” McClain, affectionately known as Baby, Dad, PawPaw, and Kenny B, was born on October 6, 1966, at St. Louis Maternity Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri, to the union of Karen “Granny Gray” Worth and James McClain. He entered eternal rest on Wednesday, July 1, 2026, at the age of 59. While our hearts are heavy with the pain of his absence, we rejoice knowing that he is now in the presence of the Lord he faithfully loved and served.

Kenny attended O’Fallon Technical High School before continuing his education at ITT Tech, where he earned his bachelor’s degree in Information Technology. Kenny dedicated his professional career to Blue Cross Blue Shield, where he faithfully served for many years.

Kenny accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior as a teenager. He was part of many ministries as a young man including Young Ambassadors For Christ. He spent the last 25+ years as a devoted member of Christian Fellowship Baptist Church, where he served as a church leader and Minister of The Gospel under the leadership of Pastor Harry Walls, III. His relationship with Christ was the foundation of his life. He loved studying God’s Word, listening to apologetics, and encouraging others in their faith. His quiet strength, wisdom, and unwavering trust in God left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him.

On May 30, 2010, Kenny married the love of his life, Tennille McClain. Together they shared over sixteen wonderful years of marriage built on love, commitment, and faith. Kenny and his wife, Tennille, enjoyed attending marriage retreats and doing marital and pre-marital counseling with couples for over 14 years. They enjoyed dining out at nice restaurants, going to the movies and concerts, listening to music, riding amusement park rollercoasters, and traveling.

Kenny found joy in life’s simple pleasures. He loved listening to music. He listened to everything from gospel to R&B to Hip Hop to pop music. Kenny was never afraid of being the center of attention. He would jump up on a stage and entertain the audience at the drop of a dime. He was a natural born comedian. He enjoyed comedy so much that he used to do stand-up comedy at local comedy clubs for a while.

Kenny was also an Amazing beat boxer and was part of the Cut Up Crew as a young man. He enjoyed playing video games and spending time discussing faith and biblical truth. He also enjoyed collecting, building, and learning about firearms. Above all, he treasured time spent with his family, especially his grandchildren, who lovingly knew him as PawPaw.

Kenny’s greatest legacy is the love he poured into his family. He leaves behind to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Tennille McClain; his daughter, Victoria McClain; his son, Keenen McClain; his cherished grandchildren, Aiden Long-McClain, Kairo Young, and Naleia McClain; his mother, Karen “Granny Gray” Worth; his father, James McClain; his sisters, Jacqueline “Suzy” (Sam) Snow, and Tracee Bush; his brothers, Michael Johnson and Kelly “BoBo” Mitchell, Jr.; and best friend/brother - Donovan (Lawayna) Lloyd along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, church family, and dear friends who will forever treasure his memory.

Kenny was preceded in death by his grandparents, Samuel “Pa” Worth and Jacqueline “Mani” Worth; his biological father, Lloyd Bush; his grandmother, Mildred Collins; and his beloved granddaughter, Peyton Singleton.

Although Kenny’s earthly journey has come to an end, the love he shared, the wisdom he imparted, and the faith he demonstrated will continue to live on through all who were blessed to know him.

Kenny’s life was a testament to God’s grace, and his memory will forever remain in our hearts.

Until We Meet Again

You walked by faith with quiet strength, trusting God through every season’s length. A gentle smile, a thoughtful mind, the kind of heart that’s hard to find.

You found great joy in simple things — A favorite song, the laughs life brings. A game to play, a truth to share, always pointing others to God’s care.

You loved your family with steadfast grace, a comforting voice, a warm embrace. As husband, father, PawPaw, and friend, Your love became a gift without end.

Though earthly days have reached their close, your greatest victory now is known. The Savior you so dearly loved has welcomed you to Heaven above.

Though our hearts still ache today, we hold to hope that will not fade. For death is not the final goodbye, for those who trust in Christ on high.

We’ll carry your lessons, your laughter, your light, until we’re together where faith becomes sight. Rest peacefully now—your race is won. Well done, good and faithful one.
