

Loving Submitted... Fester. M. Brown

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I found that peace at the close of day,
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss,
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much.

Good family, friends, good times and
A loved one touch
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.

*I am thankful for all of the things that you have done for me. But, more importantly I am proud of you because you have overcome this world and have received the ultimate reward which is Eternal Life.
Love you.*

Tommy's Life Story

James Thomas Boggs was born on March 14, 1955, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late Thomas and Mary Boggs.

Affectionally known as Tommy, James received his education in the Philadelphia Public School District Systems. Tommy enlisted in the U.S. Army on September 23, 1976, and was Honorably Discharged on September 14, 1982, as a Sergeant.

After being Honorably Discharged, Tommy worked for the City of Philadelphia as a Librarian for 17 years. He retired from the City of Philadelphia on July 8, 2016.

Tommy was a born again Christian and attended Deliverance Evangelistic Church, here in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Tommy was a serious-minded person and very serious about the Word of God. Tommy was also a very generous and caring person. Tommy was an avid sports fan — he loved football and basketball.

Tommy is survived by two sisters — Sarah A. Hayes and Hester M. Brown — and one brother, Derrick H. Boggs, Sr.

Tommy leaves to cherish his memory a host of nieces, nephews, and a large number of family and friends.

Forever loved Forever cherished

I will always remember Brother Minister as:
