

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many kind words have been spoken. Many acts of love have been done, and many prayers have been offered to and for the family. The sharing of these kind and thoughtful deeds are cherished and will remain with us. The family extends sincere love and thanks to all friends and loved ones and we asked God's blessings for each and everyone.

Obituary

Daggericus Demar "Stein or Bruh" Domineck was born in Newnan, Georgia, June 28, 1977, to the late Ms. Vivian Stevenson and Mr. Marvin Domineck. He gained his heavenly wings and departed this life for eternal rest on Saturday July 4, 2026, at WellStar West Georgia Medical Center.

Daggericus received his education within the Coweta County School System. He graduated from Newnan High School in 1995 and previously attended Newnan Chapel United Methodist Church.

Daggericus enjoyed his career working with Davison Plumbing Service and made a lifelong friendship with owner, Clarence Davison.

He later invested in Real Estate and was able to have an accomplished company, DomGil, that was very successful. He enjoyed traveling, fishing, pickling vegetables and fruit and restoring old photos of family and friends.

Daggericus is preceded in death by his mother, Vivian Stevenson; and father, Marvin Domineck.

Daggericus leaves to cherish his memories: sister, Christy; brother, Terry Domineck; a devoted and special friend, Carolyn Gilbert; 3 aunts, Arelisha Petty, Mary Frances Roberts (Henry), and Annie Ruth Melson; Domineck, Stevenson, Thompson family and a host of friends.

My life on earth was VERY GOOD, as earthly life can go, but paradise is so much more than anyone can know.
