*In Loving Memory
Celestine "Sally" Cullt
August 3, 1928 - August 29, 2025*

Sally was born near Mt. Carmel, ND to Leo and Rosetta (Perius) Metzger. Her family moved to Walhalla in 1932 where she graduated in 1946. She attended Mayville Teachers' College.

Sally married Norbert (Norby) Ault in 1948. In the mid 50s, they moved to California. In her life she held many jobs from teaching school, to working as a dental assistant, and was employed as a clerical worker at North American Rockwell. She held a variety of retail/restaurant experiences from working at Salaba Drug in Cavalier to Herbergers in Minot. She always said working in the potato house was the most fun.

She was very proud to say that she received all of her sacraments from St. Boniface Catholic Church in Walhalla, with the exception of her Baptism which took place in Mt. Carmel.

Sally loved learning new things and being active. Throughout her life she bowled, danced, played cards, and liked to visit.

She is survived by her children: Therese Ermer (Glenn), San Antonio TX; and Tracy Ault (Tracy), Minot ND; grandchildren: Zachary Ermer, Emily Ermer, Megan Ault, Cody Ault, Jory Ault, and Shaila Smith.

Preceding her in death were her parents, husband, and sisters Hortence (Burdette) and Bernice (Dinuson), and brother Lloyd as well as several nieces and nephews.

Sally Ault, 97, of Minot, ND, formerly of Cavalier, ND, passed away Friday, August 29, 2025, at the Pembilier Nursing Center, Walhalla, ND.
