

Now I Know

Now I Know, how it feels when someone that is very close to you goes home to be with God,

Now I Know, how that person feels, that family member feels, with the loss of a parent, let alone your Mother.

Now I Know, why there are many questions that run through your mind when your Mother is in her Forever Sleep.

Now I Know, when I looked at my cousins, and friends when they were dealing with the loss of their mother, now I understand the look.

Now I Know, how it feels to schedule a visit to the nursing facility/home, and then to realize she is no longer there.

Now I Know how it feels to have my first Best Friend, my Mama to no longer be here with me in the flesh (Forever in my Heart).

Now I Know, that the time that I had with my Mommy is priceless,

Now I Know, that God and Mommy had a conversation, and that's the only reason Mommy is no longer here on earth.

Now I Know, one thing for sure that God is in Control, always has been and always will be.

Now I Know, that the Love that I have for my Mommy is a Love that is indescribable, hating that she is no longer here, but very thankful and grateful that God allowed her to be my Mommy, I wouldn't trade her for nothing she is my Joy on earth like it is in Heaven.

YOUR DAUGHTER, KATHY
