

Warren Dale Van Otterloo was born August 9, 1963, to Harvey and Joanne (Wolfswinkel) Van Otterloo in Sioux Center, Iowa. He attended Rock Valley Christian School and Western Christian High School.

Warren married Jodi Klinghagen. They were blessed with one son Justin. He also welcomed to his family his stepson, Nic McVay. The couple later divorced.

Warren enjoyed things like family gatherings, where there was always so much good food to be shared, driving truck, which led to many conversations with friends as he traveled, and attending car races. He also had a passion for horses and was a part of Harness Racing where he enjoyed training and caring for many horses. Warren was very proud of his son Justin who also became involved with racing. Warren was his biggest cheerleader and was so proud of him. He never met anyone he couldn't strike up a conversation with. He had a big heart and cared for everyone.

Warren had a love for trucking and spent many years driving for different companies and farmers. He spent the last years trucking for Davelaar Farms, whom he considered to be family. Warren was a longtime member of the First Christian Reformed Church in Rock Valley. Warren passed away Thursday, September 11, 2025, at the age of 62.

Warren is survived by his son, Justin; stepson, Nic McVay; parents, Harvey and Joanne Van Otterloo; siblings, Bonnie and Rick Davelaar of Rock Valley, Merlin and Cindy Van Otterloo of Rock Valley, Wendell and Julie Van Otterloo of Rock Valley, Darwin and Wanda Van Otterloo of George, Iowa, Kim Van Otterloo of Rock Valley, Nolan and Julie Van Otterloo of Rock Valley, and Starla Van Otterloo also of Rock Valley; 21 nephews and nieces and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Warren was preceded in death by his grandparents, Pete and Magdelina Van Otterloo and Joe and Sadie Wolfswinkel.

Psalm 121

*I lift up my eyes to the mountains—
where does my help come from?
My help comes from the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot slip—
he who watches over you will not slumber;
indeed, he who watches over Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord watches over you—
the Lord is your shade at your right hand;
the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all harm—
he will watch over your life;
the Lord will watch over your coming and going
both now and forevermore.*
