

Little Angels

When God calls little children to dwell with him above.
We mortals sometimes questions the wisdom of his love.
For no heartache comes with the death of one small child.
Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to his fold
So he picks a rose bud before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them,
and so he takes but few,
To make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view Believing this is difficult Still somehow we must try
The saddest word mankind knows Will always be "Goodbye".
So when our little Rylan departed
We, who are left behind, must realize God loves children.
Angels are hard to find.

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of Heaven belongs to such as those."
