

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Azel Mincy was born March 16th, 1954, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Jazel Chapman and the late Dorothy Mincy. He departed this earthly life on June 8th, 2026.

Azel departed this life surrounded by his children, surrounded by the love and memories of those who knew him best. Born alongside his twin brother, Jazel, Azel shared a lifelong bond that was truly special and unforgettable.

As a child, Azel suffered injuries from a devastating fire that left him disabled, but he never allowed his circumstances to define his spirit. Though he never held traditional employment, he was a jack of all trades. Azel had a natural talent for working with his hands and was especially passionate about fixing cars, scrapping metal, and recycling. He could often be found tinkering with engines, finding treasures in what others overlooked, and helping others whenever he could.

Azel enjoyed the simple joys in life. He loved fishing, listening to reggae music, and cheering on his beloved Cincinnati Bengals. His smile, his determination, and unique personality brought comfort and joy to many.

Azel was preceded in death by his brothers, William Mincy and Marvin Mincy.

Azel leaves to cherish his loving memory: two daughters, Lisa Washington and Tina Snow; three sons, Azel Mincy Jr., Richard Mincy (Sandrana), and Steven Mincy; three brothers, his twin brother Jazel Mincy (Sylvia), Eric Mincy, and Sidney Allen; six sisters, Christine Mincy, Vonnita Mincy, Sharon Allen, Karen Allen, Sandy Allen, and China Williams (Mike); 19 grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces and nephews; and a special friend, Marcy Frasier.
