

Come With Me

The Lord saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So He put his arms around you,
And whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away,
Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, a beautiful smile at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove, He only takes the best.

It's lonesome here without you, we miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same, since you went away.

When days are sad and lonely, and everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper, "Cheer up and carry on."

Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping, we'll meet again someday."

-Rhonda Braswell

Obituary

Rhonda Yvette (Kennedy) McCall was called home to her eternal rest on Tuesday, March 1, 2016 at Robert Wood University Hospital in New Brunswick, NJ after a long battle with breast cancer. By her side, were her devoted husband, her children, as well as her sister and brother. Rhonda was born on June 18, 1966 in Newark, NJ, to the late Rev. John W. Kennedy and Sandra E. (Threadgill) Kennedy.

Rhonda graduated from Lakewood High School in 1984. Upon graduating, she attended Livingstone College in Salisbury, North Carolina. After college she returned home and married her childhood sweetheart Dennis. Rhonda worked for AIG for nine years as a supervisor for the Credit/Mortgage and Claims Department. After being down-sized, she later fulfilled her dream of helping others by pursuing a career as a medical assistant.

Rhonda was known for her infectious smile. She was a generous and loving person, not only to her family but to friends and to whom ever she came in contact with. She truly had a relationship with God. She was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church in Neptune, NJ where she sang in the choir and served diligently where ever needed. Rhonda was also a charter member and the first President of the Amicae, Friends of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, until 2016 when she could no longer serve due to her illness.

Rhonda leaves behind her loving husband of 28 years, Dennis McCall, two daughters, Renee LaShawn McCall and Jessica Lynn Self (James), two sisters, Anissa Erika Kennedy and Claressa Woodward; two brothers; Jonathan Crow and Richard Woodward; a grandson Jahir McCall; her mother Sandra E. (Threadgill) Kennedy; a step daughter, Madalyn McCall; step son, Terence McCall and a step granddaughter Akira McCall; Uncle Robert Kennedy, her father's only surviving brother; her mother-in-law, Mandalene McCall and step mother, Keitha Wiggins Kennedy; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts and friends.
