~ Precious Memories ~

Today we honor my mother, a woman whose love and devotion touched so many lives. One of her greatest gifts was the way she raised and cared for her grandchildren. She didn't just love them—she helped guide them, teach them, protect them, and shape them into the people they are today.

Her home was a place of comfort, wisdom, and unconditional love. She was always there with a helping hand, a listening ear, and a caring heart. The lessons she taught, the sacrifices she made, and the love she gave will continue to live on through her children, grandchildren, and everyone who knew her.

While our hearts are heavy with grief, we are grateful for the time we had with her and for the legacy she leaves behind. She was deeply loved, and she will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

Natalie
